

STOCK YARDS QUIETER TODAY

Numerous Cases of Rioters Who Resisted
Police Called in the Police Courts.

IMPORTING MANY WORKMEN DAILY

Both Sides Claim They Will Win Out--The Twenty-First Day of the Great Contest Sees
No Improvement.

(Special by Scripps-Metlae.)

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 1.—Quiet marked the opening hours of the twenty-first day of the stockyard strike. Fifty persons were arraigned at the stockyard police court this morning as the result of rioting last night in which three thousand strikers and sympathizers battled with a hundred police. The shipments of strike-breakers continued to arrive this morning and were distributed in the plants without disturbance. The packers claim all departments will be put in operation this week. The receipts of stock are very heavy this morning. The packers could not handle them all and shipments were made to other cities.

Ample Supply
Fifteen hundred men and women surrounded the strikers' supply store at Ashland avenue and Gross street this morning, asking for food. The supply seemed ample. The packers claimed large accessions from the ranks of the strikers this morning. Armour said he took back 150, Nelson Morris said a hundred reported for work this morning. Swift claimed that sixteen skilled workmen returned. A hundred colored women arrived at the Libby, McNeill & Libby plant where they will do scrubbing work in place of the women who quit.

Riot and Bloodshed
Early last evening five thousand men and women, in a wholesale mob, broke down the doors of the stockyard and Wood streets last night, gave the police the first real disturbance they have had to quell since the inauguration of the stockyard strike.

Police were struck with bricks and stones that rained on them like hail. Many of them were injured, but they pluckily charged on the riotous mob with their batons and revolvers drawn.

The police succeeded in dispersing the frenzied crowd, but this was not accomplished until the bluecoats fired round after round from their revolvers.

The shots were fired in the air, but the rioters did not know this, and the effect was the same as if the police had taken aim at the human targets.

Police Use Their Clubs.
Capt. Clancy of the stock yards station says that at least 200 of the rioters were clubbed by the police, many being badly hurt before order was restored and the mob dispersed.

A saloon and grocery store were wrecked by the rioters, and a patrol wagon also was demolished before the police succeeded in getting the upper hand.

Several of the riot leaders were arrested, and to avert a repetition of the disorderly scenes saloons and groceries in the district were closed by the police.

Hunt Strike Breakers.
Capt. Clancy's station sent 100 officers to maintain order in the neighborhood, which is immediately back of the big packing houses.

The cause of the riot was a search that was instituted early in the evening for two men supposed to be non-union employees at the stock yards. Some one started the report that he had seen the two men enter the saloon of Peter Mazko, 4359 Wood street, where it was said they had lodging quarters above the saloon.

Half a dozen rioters went into the saloon with clubs and demanded Mazko to deliver up the two men. The saloonkeeper denied that he was giving shelter to any such persons, but he was not believed. They attempted to go upstairs, and Mazko barred the way with a revolver which he snatched from behind the bar.

Gathering of the Mob.
In the meantime a large crowd was gathering in front of the saloon and a watchman at the stock yards telephoned for the police. Lieut. Moore and two officers responded from the New City station, but they were no bables in the hands of the howling mob that was being augmented every second.

Moore sent in a riot call on his arrival, which was followed by two other riot calls, bringing officers from half a dozen stations.

The mob surged around Mazko's saloon with the handful of police trying to pacify the men, but to no avail. Before the reinforcements of police arrived the crowd numbered almost 1,500. In another quarter of an hour it had almost doubled, men and women running from every direction, and all of them armed with a brick or club.

The mob was composed of Lithuanians and Poles, some of whom are said to have been strikers, but the greater part, the police say, were strike sympathizers.

Saloon Is Wrecked.
With only a few police guarding the saloon of Mazko, the crowd of over 3,000 charged against it, and 50 of those in front entered.

They broke down the doors in search for the two men, who had been seen going in, but did not find them. In their wrath they broke furniture and everything that was breakable in the saloon. They helped themselves to beer and whiskey, and drink added to their frenzy.

On failure to find the men in Mazko's place the mob attacked the grocery of Edward Feinden, next door. Feinden reported that they had sought protection above the store. The few policemen were compelled to give their whole attention to Mazko, as the mob was bent on lynching him.

Ruin Grocery Store.
Feinden fled into the saloon when the crowd of rioters entered his grocery and implored the police to save him.

Counters were broken, barrels and boxes smashed and the interior of the building was literally demolished. Every window in the store as well as in the saloon was smashed by bricks hurled from the middle of the street.

With the arrival of more officers shots were fired from the windows of several houses in the vicinity. The police returned these shots, firing at the heads in the windows, and it is thought some of the rioters were hit.

For several blocks in the neighborhood the gas lamps were shattered by stones hurled by the mob, and the police were forced to fight in darkness.

Capitol Patrol Wagon.
One patrol wagon, loaded with bluecoats, dashed up Wood street and the officers leaped out with drawn clubs to disperse the mob which blocked the middle of the street.

As many men as could get around the patrol wagon caught hold of it and emptied it. The horses attached to it broke from their harness and dashed through the crowd, trampling many.

Police Charge on Mob.
The policemen massed their forces and marched along the street. Before them the mob would fade away. Its members would scatter down side streets and after the column of officers passed would again seek the roadway and repeat the jeering and throwing of missiles.

At each corner the mass of men in front of the column of police increased in numbers and quick rushes were made by the officers. For over an hour the rioting continued and in that time many shots were fired by the police and the rioters.

At Kansas City
Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 1.—The police reported many skilled butchers have deserted the strikers today and returned to work at Armour's plant.

ASSASSIN DIES
KEEPING SILENT
Murderer of the Russian Minister Dies Without Making Any Disclosures.

(Special by Scripps-Metlae.)
St. Petersburg, Aug. 1.—The assassin of Minister of the Interior Plehve, died today as the result of injuries sustained when he threw the bomb. He made no disclosures before his death.

Ex-Senator George G. Vest of Missouri passed a good night and his condition was practically unchanged.

Rev. J. D. Stoops resigned the pastorate of the First Congregational church of East Hampton, Mass., to fill the chair of philosophy in Grinnell college, Iowa.

The group of four buildings of the Ornamental Terra Cotta works, owned by Conkling, Armstrong & Co., fire; loss, $150,000. Fully covered by Philadelphia, was destroyed by insurance.

NO ATTEMPTS TO START THE MILLS
Not a Wheel Turning in Fall River, Massachusetts, This Morning.

(Special by Scripps-Metlae.)
Fall River, Mass., Aug. 1.—No attempts were made to start the mills this morning as announced. No developments of the strike are expected today.

UNCLE SAM—YOU ARE A DON WOULD GIVE YOU A JOB WITH SUCH A RECOMMENDATION AS T KEY, INDEED, TO THINK THAT THIS!

INJUNCTION FOR PROPERTY OWNERS

Lawless Acts of the Strikers Cited in Cases at St. Joseph, Mo.

(Special by Scripps-Metlae.)
St. Joseph, Mo., Aug. 1.—A temporary injunction was granted by Federal Judge Phillips today against the strikers. The application was made by Swift, Morris and Mammoth, alleging hundreds of lawless acts of the strikers. The injunction was based on alleged interference of state commerce.

LEITER ASKS FOR FEDERAL WRIT

Would Protect His Property by Legal Means Against Striking Miners.

(Special by Scripps-Metlae.)
Springfield, Ill., Aug. 1.—Joseph Leiter today asked Judge Humphrey of the federal court for an injunction against the union miners at Ziegler and a temporary injunction restraining order was granted. The United States marshal has left to serve the order.

ENRAGED LION SINKS CLAWS INTO TRAINER

Resents Punishment With Whip and Springs on Man, Who Is Rescued by Attendants.

New York, Aug. 1.—Captain "Jack" Bonavita was all but torn to pieces by the big African lion Baltimore Sunday night in Coney Island before a holiday crowd roared to seats in terror.

The big lion, roused to frenzy by the stings of a whip, fell on the trainer with a terrible roar at the close of a 15-minute fight between man and beast. It raked Bonavita with its long claws, threw him against the back wall of the den and as he was falling like a log it sprang again, sank its teeth into his left shoulder and, dragging him three feet to the center of the cage, it tore the muscles from his arm from the top of the shoulder to the elbow.

Frank C. Bostock sprang through the cage door into the center of the den and snatched the limp form of the trainer from beneath the body of the lion. A fusillade of revolvers from 20 attendants checked the beast a second and in that second Bostock carried Bonavita to safety.

Enormous Cakes.
The most remarkable cakes ever made were among the gifts at the Victoria jubilee celebration. The finest of these stood thirteen feet high, weighed a quarter of a ton and cost $1,500. Another figured at the wedding of the Arctic explorer, Admiral Markham. On the top was a sugar model of H. M. S. Alert, wedged in the center of an iceberg.

Sunday School Membership.
There are within 3,000,000 of as many persons enrolled in the Sunday schools of this country as in the public schools, there being 12,000,000 in the former and 16,000,000 in the latter. The total Sunday school membership throughout the whole world is 25,000,000.

NEW PLANS FOR THE CAMPAIGN

State Treasurer Is To Be Attacked and Made the Scape Goat of the Machine.

(Special by Scripps-Metlae.)
Madison, Wis., Aug. 1.—Governor La Follette is apparently making war on State Treasurer John J. Kempf and people are wondering what new game the "fine Italian hand" of the badger state executive is now attempting to play. It is a matter of Wisconsin political record that Governor La Follette never had any love for the state treasurer, for it was Mr. Kempf who in the state convention of 1902, when the governor was in a great majority, broke the La Follette state and secured the nomination for treasurer against the La Follette choice, Joseph G. End of Shoberyan. Strangely enough, too, Mr. Kempf was the founder of the first and original La Follette club in Milwaukee county back in the present governor's campaign.

Some errors in the books of Deposit Clerk W. T. Duke, in Mr. Kempf's office were recently discovered, according to which there was an apparent shortage due the state from Mr. Kempf of some $1,575. It now transpires after thorough checking of the books that the money of the state is all in the state treasury and that the discrepancies were merely errors in bookkeeping. However, Governor La Follette has exercised his statutory right and compelled an increase in the bond of the treasurer from $25,000 to $600,000. Perhaps the most plausible explanation offered is that the governor takes this opportunity of embarrassing Mr. Kempf so as to make a play of great care of the security of the people's money and at the same time discredit Mr. Kempf, who has stalwart friends in great number and employs some stalwarts in his department. It is also suggested that it is the first step in a plan to divide the state offices between the governor's faction and the democrats, in order to defeat the faction that was declared by the national convention to be the regular republican party of Wisconsin.

LOUD WAITS IN THE MUNICIPAL COURT
This Morning When Judge Fifield Sentenced Twelve-Year Old Paul Bailey to Industrial School.

There was weeping and wailing in the municipal court this morning when Paul Bailey, aged twelve years, was found to be incorrigible by Judge Fifield on the testimony of his father, John Bailey, and sentenced to the industrial school for boys at Waukesha. The boy has been staying away nights about one third of the time and been in the company of a number of bad youngsters who will later ultimately travel the same road if they do not mend their ways.

Income from Convict Labor.
Georgia will get $250,000 net out of a recent award of convict labor. Fifteen hundred convicts have recently been let out to contractors in that state. In the states where convict labor is so farmed out the average bid for each convict is $225 a year.

Swimming Harder Than Climbing.
An Austrian physician, Dr. F. Mueller, has made experiments which demonstrate that swimming is harder work than mountain climbing.

WILL HANG FOR HIS VILE DEED

Union Cab Man in Kansas City,
To Suffer for His Crime
Very Soon.

(Special by Scripps-Metlae.)
Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 1.—Sentence of death was pronounced on Edgar Bailey, a union hack driver, today, for the murder during the strike, of Albert Ferguson, a non-union driver. James Forsyth, another union man and Bailey's companion in the attack upon Ferguson, was sentenced to eighteen years in prison.

PATTERSON DIED SUDDENLY TODAY

Former Pennsylvania Governor Overworked at the St. Louis Convention, Has Passed Away.

(Special by Scripps-Metlae.)
Philadelphia, Aug. 1.—Former Governor Robert E. Pattison died at 6:25 this morning, at his home here. Pneumonia was the immediate cause, but he was greatly weakened by over work at the St. Louis convention.

WIDOW OFFERS TO WED SEWING MACHINE AGENT

Lone Woman Needed Man to Help
Manage Farms and Marries
"Sight Unseen."

Blingtonton, N. Y., Aug. 1.—There was a romantic wedding at Preble, N. Y., Saturday, where E. J. Bowditch of Chicago, who represents a sewing machine company here, was married to Mrs. Amanda Burlingame, a wealthy widow of 50, who wanted a man to manage her two farms.

Bowditch is 47 years old, a widower and has a daughter living in Chicago, his home city. Mrs. Burlingame, anxious to find a man to do her farm work, on the recommendation of a friend wrote to him asking him to marry her, saying that otherwise she would have to abandon two farms, as the harvest on them was spoiling for want of help.

He decided to accept the marriage offer and wired the widow, who came to Cortland, where he was employed. They were married on sight.

Flight Through Frozen North.
The Lapland limited is perhaps the most curious of through express trains in that it carries fewer passengers and runs over a longer distance than any other train. This flyer leaves Stockholm, Sweden, once a week during the summer months and runs straight through to Narvik, a Norwegian harbor, within the Arctic zone. The distance is 1,336 miles.

Shipment of Frozen Meat.
During the last 24 years 58,651,473 frozen meat carcasses have been imported to London, and of this huge total New Zealand has been responsible for 11,154,920 and Australia 12,769,550.

Bamboo Good for Scaffolding.
The French consul at Batavia recommends bamboo as a fine material for constructing builders' scaffolding. Its power of resistance is very great and it will not rot, but becomes stronger with age.

JAPS DRIVING RUSSIAN ARMY

Have Succeeded in Turning Kouropatkin's Flank--United Three Strong Armies.

RUSSIANS ARE RETREATING TODAY

General Count Keller, Russian Commander, Has Been Killed by the Bursting of Shell--Much Confusion in Reports.

(Special by Scripps-Metlae.)

St. Petersburg, Aug. 1.—A big battle is in progress at Hail Cheng. The Japanese armies under Generals Oku, Nedzu and Kuroki are advancing on the Russian forces. General Count Keller, commanding the Russian forces in action, was killed by the bursting of a shell. Kouropatkin reports three Japanese armies have simultaneously renewed the attack July 31st on the southern front. The Russians offered a stubborn resistance until the attacks showed the enemy to be greatly superior in strength. The rear guard then retreated toward Hail Cheng. The Japanese main blow was delivered by the Taku Shan army, General Oku commanding between Shuang Cheng and Hail Cheng. Our main position was attacked by the Japanese forces in the direction of Semant and Liao Yang. The Japanese also are advancing against our troops east of Hail Cheng.

Starts for Port
Carlbad, Aug. 1.—American Ambassador McCormick, who has been taking the waters here, left suddenly for St. Petersburg.

Port Arthur Rumors
London, Aug. 1.—Important news of developments in the war situation are looked for from two points, Port Arthur and Hail Cheng. It is the belief here that the flood of rumors from Port Arthur have some foundation in fact. Admiral Togo gives a suggestion of the closeness with which he is watching the naval side of affairs in a brief account of a side issue.

Reports of the land movements continue to come through roundabout channels, but all are to the same effect—that there is much heavy fighting in progress.

At Hail Cheng the army of Kouropatkin is threatened by Japanese columns which are constantly shifting and appearing in new places unexpectedly. It is not believed that the main forces have been engaged since the Tachekiao affair, but there have been some serious engagements during the last few days.

Landing Japs
St. Petersburg, Aug. 1.—Information from Yinkow received by the official considerable forces of Japanese have been landed under cover of several warships.

Have Won Out
London, Aug. 1.—Reuters' Telegraph company has dispatches asserting that Kouropatkin's east front or right flank has been turned by the Japanese.

Badly Shattered
Tokio, Aug. 1.—While the Japanese

FIND A MESSAGE FROM ANDRAE NOW

Floating Bottle Discovered by a Whaler With News of Lost Explorer.

(Special by Scripps-Metlae.)
Christiania, Aug. 1.—Dispatches today announce the Norwegian whaler found north of Spitzbergen, a bottle containing a letter from Prof. Andree who sailed for the north pole in July, 1898, in a balloon. The contents of the letter are not given.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRE.
Fire today destroyed the establishment of the Shilbest Mercantile company at San Francisco; loss, $125,000.

A commission of naval engineers will leave Mexico City for Genoa, where they will receive the gunboats Bravo and Morelos, constructed in shipyards there.

Forest fires in the Gila forest reserve, Arizona, which during the last two months devastated an area of fifteen square miles of fine timber, have been put out by heavy rains.

The Illinois Life Insurance company has withdrawn from Kentucky. The number of policyholders affected is estimated at nearly 100,000.

Walter Bush, a leading labor democrat of Peoria, Ill., in an open letter designated the action at St. Louis as miserable slush and refused congressional nomination.

The Arcville Times, G. M. Freer, editor, a democratic newspaper published in Cass county, which has always been a hotbed of democracy, has declared for Roosevelt.

Rev. Father Unthan has resigned the pastorate of the German Evangelical church at Carlyle, Ill., to go to the First Protestant Evangelical church of Carthage, O.

Present Day Amber Is Resin.
According to the best modern authorities the so-called amber found in Syria, India and Madagascar is not amber at all, but a resin, nearly allied to copal, which is the product of leaf-bearing trees growing at the present day. True amber is the resin of ancient trees long since extinct, and there is a good deal of conflict among scientists as to which geological period it belongs to.

Another Reason.
A document in French at the last session of the senate was placed at each United States senator's desk. Senator Tillman said that there were not seven men in the senate who would know the Lord's prayer if they saw it in French. Senator Hoar, who heard this guess, added: "Perhaps so, perhaps so; but that would not be because they can't read French."

Have Barchended Craze.
There is a craze for going barchended in parts of England. This advertisement over an English hat store is a sign of the times: "No hat cruder—A few good hats for sale cheap; hardly been worn; owners no further use for them; best quality; latest styles."

Bamboo Good for Scaffolding.
The French consul at Batavia recommends bamboo as a fine material for constructing builders' scaffolding. Its power of resistance is very great and it will not rot, but becomes stronger with age.

Swimming Harder Than Climbing.
An Austrian physician, Dr. F. Mueller, has made experiments which demonstrate that swimming is harder work than mountain climbing.

Income from Convict Labor.
Georgia will get $250,000 net out of a recent award of convict labor. Fifteen hundred convicts have recently been let out to contractors in that state. In the states where convict labor is so farmed out the average bid for each convict is $225 a year.

Shipment of Frozen Meat.
During the last 24 years 58,651,473 frozen meat carcasses have been imported to London, and of this huge total New Zealand has been responsible for 11,154,920 and Australia 12,769,550.

flotilla was searching for the Russian mines in Port Arthur last night a screw of a Japanese gunboat became entangled in a cable. The Russian torpedo boats fired on the vessel which finally escaped badly damaged. Commander Hiroz and ten of the crew were seriously injured.

Starts for Port
Carlbad, Aug. 1.—American Ambassador McCormick, who has been taking the waters here, left suddenly for St. Petersburg.

Port Arthur Rumors
London, Aug. 1.—Important news of developments in the war situation are looked for from two points, Port Arthur and Hail Cheng. It is the belief here that the flood of rumors from Port Arthur have some foundation in fact. Admiral Togo gives a suggestion of the closeness with which he is watching the naval side of affairs in a brief account of a side issue.

Reports of the land movements continue to come through roundabout channels, but all are to the same effect—that there is much heavy fighting in progress.

At Hail Cheng the army of Kouropatkin is threatened by Japanese columns which are constantly shifting and appearing in new places unexpectedly. It is not believed that the main forces have been engaged since the Tachekiao affair, but there have been some serious engagements during the last few days.

Landing Japs
St. Petersburg, Aug. 1.—Information from Yinkow received by the official considerable forces of Japanese have been landed under cover of several warships.

Have Won Out
London, Aug. 1.—Reuters' Telegraph company has dispatches asserting that Kouropatkin's east front or right flank has been turned by the Japanese.

Badly Shattered
Tokio, Aug. 1.—While the Japanese

WESTERN TOWNS ARE WIPED OUT

Steel Bridges Are Washed From Their Foundations, While Massive Abutments Are Crumbled and Carried Away—Mining Camp Damaged.

Reno, Nev., Aug. 1.—As the result of a cloudburst Saturday afternoon the towns of Douglas and Silver Star, near Sodaville, Nev., are reported to have been swept away. The news was telephoned from the scene of the disaster to Sodaville. The report was that the flood, in waves four or five feet deep, was sweeping away houses and that great property damage was being wrought. The schoolhouse and four dwellings were swept away.

Ten minutes after the first news was received at Sodaville the wire went down and it could not be learned how many lives were lost. There is great excitement and the Sodaville people have been warned to watch for bodies. The volume of water is increasing at that place.

Near New Boston, six miles north of Sodaville, Carson, on the Colorado railroad, is covered with water for half a mile, and at Rhodes, three miles south of here, a similar condition prevails.

Great Wall of Water.
Kingman, Ariz., Aug. 1.—Heavy rains in the mountains east of Tucson Saturday night sent down a wall of water thirty feet high through the canyon, washing out the Santa Fe railroad track, embankments, bridges, telegraph poles and everything movable for twelve miles.

Great steel bridges were taken from their foundations and piled up against the walls of the canyon and massive stone abutments were crumbled and carried away.

At Crozier everything movable, including the station signal and box cars, were piled up on the big steel bridge west of the station. At Hackberry the pumping house and machinery were destroyed and swept into the valley miles away. The big well was filled to the brim with debris. Houses high above all well known high-water marks were flooded, and much damage was done.

Cloudburst Ruins Camp.
Hundreds of men have been hurried to the washout by the Santa Fe railroad, but it will be some time before the water subsides sufficiently to allow the workmen to reconstruct the roadbed and bridges.

Three miles of the Arizona and Utah track were washed out and it will take several days to make repairs. A report reached Kingman of a cloudburst at Cedar, a mining camp eighty miles south of here, which carried away part of a twenty stamp mill, a gasoline engine, a blacksmith shop, a forty horse-power boiler, and other property. The shaft of the Arnold mine was filled with debris.

John Osborn transacted business at Evansville today.

NEVADA TO BE FARMING STATE

IRRIGATION OPENS TRACTS FOR SMALL FARMS.

IT IS NOW WELL UNDER WAY

Homestead Entries Required to Prevent Land Snatching by the Great Corporations.

The annual report of Engineer L. H. Taylor, the resident hydrographer of Nevada for the geological survey, has been forwarded to Mr. Newell, the national hydrographer, and is now along with other reports, in the hands of the government printer. Important work has been done in Nevada since the passage of the irrigation law, work which promises to lift the battle born state from the foot of the list, and at least give it the agricultural importance to which its fertile soil and fine climate entitle it. The trouble with Nevada has been that all her lands, suitable for farming, were in their early history stolen by the stock men who turned the state into one vast grazing ground. The national government now comes to the rescue with storage reservoirs, and the small settler will have his ends.

The first shovelful of earth under the national irrigation act was thrown in commencing the work on what is known as the government Truckee-Carson project. The irrigable lands commanded by the Truckee and Carson rivers, the flood waters of which the government will store, lie in Reno valley, to the extent of probably 12,000 acres; along the foot of hills north of the Truckee river and in a number of medium sized valleys, about 70,000 acres; on the Pyramid Indian reservation and adjacent to Wadsworth about 35,000 acres; in the Carson Sink valley fully 160,000 acres and in the lower Humboldt or Lovelock valley about 75,000 acres.

Much of this land is held in private ownership and will require the operation of a water users' association, to deal with the government, such as has been organized in the Salt River valley. In the Carson Sink valley, Mr. Taylor reports, about 125,000 acres in public land. This is a fortunate circumstance, and from the standpoint of the future settler it is also fortunate that the engineers of the present reclamation service had these Nevada conditions in mind at the time of the passage of the irrigation act, else there would have been a repetition in part of the calamity which happened to Nevada when she came into the union and the speculators immediately secured all the valuable land and water rights and excluded settlement, so that now Nevada has but about 40,000 population. Certain parcels were ready to file up on this government land, immediately that the irrigation bill passed, utilizing the desert land act and the commutation clause of the homestead act for this nefarious scheme, by which the speculators would profit at the hands of the future settler. But the telegraph was quicker than the steam engine and because members of Mr. Newell's surveying force knew what would happen to the public lands under the Truckee project, immediately the irrigation bill was passed, vesting authority in the interior department to withdraw lands from speculative entry, the entire country within any possible range of the Truckee or Carson waters was held up from anything but five year homestead entry.

Mr. Taylor's official statement regarding the surveys made of the Truckee-Carson project is that "The investigations of the water supply have not progressed sufficiently to warrant a close estimate of the irrigation possibilities, but it is confidently believed that the water can be controlled so as to reclaim at least 375,000 acres."

There would be 2,241 one hundred and sixty acre farms or an agricultural population, leaving out the towns and trading centers of probably 11,720.

While Mr. Taylor's report is of a statistical nature and somewhat dry, though notwithstanding the subject treated, he in one paragraph, paints a picture of the possible results of the government work, not without human interest. The principal crops, he says, are alfalfa, which is cut five or six times a year, about a ton to the acre, barley, oats, and wheat, averaging twenty-five or thirty bushels to the acre, though instances have been known of seventy-five bushels per acre. Grapes thrive and produce good yields of fruit of excellent flavor, three acres having produced 5,000 pounds. Pomegranates, peaches and apricots do well, as do vegetables and small fruits.

GUY E. MITCHELL.

A SHORTAGE STILL IN FIRE ESCAPES

Two Ordered for Janesville Have Arrived from Watertown, But Other Orders Are Unfilled.

New fire escapes for the city hall and East Side Old Fellows' hall which were ordered by Chief Engineer Klein, have arrived and the latter one is being put in place. They were manufactured by the Darnfield-Kumert Co. of Watertown and are of a pattern similar to that of the one recently put on the high school. The company has taken measurements for an escape to be put on the Jackson block but no figures have been submitted. More orders are reported to be on hand than can be filled. Ninety-day notices were served by the chief engineer on a number of building owners during the winter and the time was later extended for a similar period on account of the difficulty experienced in getting orders filled. It is probable that another extension of time will have to be granted some of the owners.

GAZETTE FORCE ENJOYED PICNIC

At Crystal Springs Park Saturday Afternoon—Exciting Baseball Game.

The Gazette office force and their families were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bliss at a picnic given at Crystal Springs park Saturday afternoon. The trip was made in "The Columbia" with Capt. Paul Gehlke at the wheel, and as soon as the park was reached Gus Smith and George Hesse chose places for a baseball game. The game closed on account of darkness and a lost ball before the last half of the ninth inning had been played, the score standing 10 to 8 in favor of Captain Hesse's players. Empire Harold Green, however, refused to award the victory. Rain interfered with a bountiful repast served underneath the trees and a hurried adjournment was taken to the festivities. William Ross made a short address expressing the thanks of the force and three hearty cheers were given for the host and hostess.

NAMES COUNTY INSTITUTE DATES

Superintendents Issue Their Annual Call—Helping the Teachers in Rock County.

O. D. Antisdel and C. H. Fleming, county superintendents of schools, have issued a call for the annual call of Rock county institute which will be held in the high school building in Janesville, August 8 to 19, inclusive. The corps of instructors will include Superintendent H. C. Buell, Professor A. A. Upham, and Principals R. E. Loveland and W. A. Clark. Every teacher who expects to teach in Rock county next year is expected to attend unless excused by their superintendent before the season begins.

In the call for the institute, the superintendent says: "The minimum in all branches this fall will be 60 per cent and an average of 65 per cent for a third grade certificate. Wages have been higher this past year and undoubtedly will be still higher next year. The people and pupils are entitled to higher qualifications and better service from their teachers for this increased expenditure. It is for your interest to better prepare yourself. There were many this past year who just managed to pass the examination. They should make thorough review and the place to do it is at a summer school, the institute is not long enough and is not designed for that kind of work. Every member of the institute is required by the state department to take reading and language. In addition there will be classes formed in history, constitutions, arithmetic, geography, arithmetic, school management and library reading."

The examinations will follow immediately after the institute. First district—Janesville, August 22-24; Evansville, August 25-27. Second district—Milton Junction, August 22-24; Afton, August 25-27; Clinton, August 28-31. Both districts—First and second grades, Janesville, October 14 and 15. For those who attend the White-water summer school an examination will be given at Whitewater on the last two days of the session. They will be based largely on the work covered in the summer school. As a special feature of the institute there will be several evening lectures and entertainments. Superintendent Antisdel will give a paper on "History of the State of Wisconsin." Prof. Upham on "Wireless Telegraphy." Liquid Air, by Prof. Walker on "The Boy and His Sweetheart." It is possible that others may be added.

RETURN FROM THE BIG SAENGERFEST

Concordia Singing Society Members Report a Fine Time in Milwaukee—Last Concert Yesterday.

The great male chorus of 2,500 voices assembled for Milwaukee's saengerfest gave its final concert last evening before an immense audience. Some of the Janesville singers returned home last evening and the balance this morning. The Janesville Concordia delegation consisted of the following: Director Prof. W. T. Thiele; first tenors, George Kueck, Carl Kueck, William Klenow, Edward Smith, John Baumann, Philip Reus, Antonio Hanauka, and Herman Strampe; second tenors, H. W. Erick, C. E. Hermann, Bahr, Korst, Louis Yahney; first bass, Charles Pabst, Ed Klenow, E. W. Klenow, and Peter Weber; second bass, Peter Neuses, Fred Rothman, Charles Maas, Carl Brockhaus, and William Lennartz. The Concordia members report a delightful time.

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker had at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the invigorating action of the true cause of their destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Nowbro's Herpelin absolutely destroys this germ, thus preventing the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send the 10 stamps for sample to The Herpelin Co., Detroit, Mich. People's Drug Co. and King's Pharmacy, Special Agents.

HOW THE WEST IS REALLY LOCATED

An Interesting Letter From Bonesteel Written by a Janesville Boy.

Bonesteel, S. D., July 29.—The great lottery is now being drawn at Chamberlain, S. D., and the returns are being posted here at Bonesteel. The excitement is not of the noisy kind but a tension is noticeable, caused by individual interest. "Just wait and maybe mine will be next," this is not spoken but is felt by the persons. The outward signs are expressive of nonchalance and "well, I don't expect to draw anyway." But the speaker will then gradually work around and then furtively glance at the new names, and then do almost anything for a while and then look again, and possibly go with a chance acquaintance. So while there is no noisy demonstration still it is a fact that many miss dinner and "didn't think it was so late."

One chance in forty-two? Yet people hope. The gamblers here also better than one in ten, yet the gamblers were run out last week as "graffers." Number one went to Lancaster, Pa., then came Nebraska, Iowa, South Dakota, all with large percentages, as it really looks as though the whole population of these states has registered. It is rumored that all of Omaha came.

The chance of 1 in 40 looks bad enough for some men, yet it is not that much as less than one-half of the land is worth taking. The price of the government is uniform, but the land is not, for where cactus grows he has no neighbors save an occasional jack rabbit or a rattler, and lots of the hill tops have cactus. Thus its chance is reduced to 1 in 84 at least. A lottery pay much for little, this "drawing" pay little for much, for figure it out yourself: Imagine you get a good claim. The improvements—posts, 20c each; wire, $1.50 per hundred; well, 50c per ft.; fuel, $3 per ton; no trees; house, $1000 (it has to be good to stand the winter); then necessary posting and wiring for inside fencing; out houses, $2000; and the land at $5.25 per acre. The moving cause here, if you listen to the talk in the crowd, is "something for nothing," and such a condition never did exist and never will. Many figure on "selling out" or "relinquishing," but that won't work here, as the conditions of the opening are strongly against the possibility of the deal, the payments being forfeited and the land re-opened for a new filing; so this class of speculators will be disappointed. About one thousand good homes will be established but this will be long after the chaos has settled. The chaos will be caused by the scramble that will take place when the entries and selections are made. The selection being the hard part, many when they see what they have selected will give up and go home, and those who select well will stay and there for five years will see a community flourishing in which the "mortgage" is unknown, and the consequent "interest" "bug bears" will not worry the farmers, and this because the government does not part with title during that period. It has been a great gamble, and has appealed to the gambling instinct in men, and to this is due the unprecedented registration and the consequent interest. Allow three friends to each person registered and you have a spectacle of nearly one-half million of people with the eyes on the Rosebud, and then figure the possibilities of the different phases of calculations which attach, born of necessity.

You have good food for reflection, but you can rest assured that whatever is obtained will be the reward of hard work and privation, and it will not be the kind of "milk and honey" of the dreamer or sluggard. You, who stayed home, have missed merely a pleasant trip.

Yours very truly,
C. F. MATHIAS,
Janesville, Wis.

THE DELHI DURBAR.

Remarkable Spectacular Entree With the Barnum & Bailey Show.

The management of the Barnum & Bailey Greatest Show on Earth have gathered all the particulars and details relating to the greatest pageant in the history of the world which took place in India, and known as the Durbar. It was, in fact, a parade of all the various ruling chiefs and princes of India, with their numerous retainers who acknowledge Edward VII as Emperor of India, and the extent, wealth and splendor of the demonstration has never been equaled in the world's history. It is this pageant Barnum & Bailey have in good measure duplicated, and they have made a production only equaled by the original. It is a faithful reflex of a glorious event with every concomitant exactly reproduced and has been treated in the grandest possible style to use a trite expression, "regardless of expense." In this wonderfully exciting theme artists, architects and designers have exhausted all current literature in their search for authentic data from which to manufacture the huge triumphal floats and cars, secure photographs and illustrations of armor, weapons, banners, devices, drolls, chariots, costumes and paraphernalia, with the result that all are now exhibited in facsimile of the originals, specimens of the various interesting objects used in the days when the world was more populous than it is today, and at a period of its history when pomp, ostentation and lavish prodigality were conspicuous. Four hundred characters are seen in this wonderful production, all elegantly and expensively clothed in the costumes of the Orient, among which are some radiant in beauty and fiery of almost inconceivable picturesqueness and fabulous cost. Men in burnished armor, priests in long robes, archers, warriors, soothsayers, knights, servants, animal tenders, teamsters, nobles, ambassadors, courtiers and many others are all faithfully represented just as they appeared. As an instructive and grand divertissement, as a prelude to the regular performance, it is a most ambitious attempt in the line of glorious spectacles yet attempted and is really worthy the great institution presenting it. Besides this superb spectacle, there is a triple circus, double menagerie, three herds of elephants, a herd of giraffes, museum of living wonders, hippodrome races, aerial tournament, equestrian entertainment, exhibition of models of United States warships, baby elephant and mother, nearly 100 horses performing at the same time in three rings, 300 human artists of all kinds, and a thousand new features collected at home and abroad in all the countries of the world, and they will all be here undivided on Aug. 4.

...LINK AND PIN..

News for the Railroad Men.

Baggage-master Grant Noyes and family spent Sunday with relatives and friends at Broadhead.

Richard Barry has been appointed flagman at the North Jackson street railroad crossing.

Store keeper, Robert Lee at the North-western round house is back to work after spending a few days at Lake Kegonsa.

The third annual picnic of the employees of the Northern Wisconsin division of the Chicago & North-western railroad will be held at the North-western park, North Fond du Lac, Saturday, August 6. This will be a day of recreation for the employees of the road. Bring your family with well filled lunch baskets and have a good time. If you are single, bring your best girl, but don't bring some body else's best girl. For bona-fide employees and their families transportation will be arranged in the limits of the division. Committee on arrangements.

Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea should be one of the toilet necessities of every lady of social prominence. Makes the face bright and sparkling. 35 cents, tea or tablets. Smith Drug Co.

President Diaz has said that he may visit the United States during the coming winter.

ADVOCATE FOR A SMALL BOYS' GAME

TAKES OLD FOGY TO TASK VERY SHARPLY.

IS A FRIEND OF THE YOUTHS

Quotes an Interesting Article on the Treatment of Youthful Ballists.

To the Editor: "Old Fogy" has several times complained of the small boys playing ball on the streets. Also the annoyance it was to the owners of property. Now, I live in the neighborhood where there is much baseball playing by ambitious youngsters. I, too, was much annoyed by the noise and ball flying into all sorts of places. Recently I read the following in the Youth's Companion, which I wish everyone could read. I ask if you will not reprint it so that even "Old Fogy," if he was once a boy himself, can appreciate it.

A four-foot board fence in a garden, where a lady of quiet tastes cultivated flowers, from a vacant lot, where boys from the side streets play ball—whirling, riotous, tumultuous and whooping ball.

"At first," she says, "I thought I must either give up my garden or get the police to turn them out. The racket alone seemed unendurable, and the ball was always flying over the fence with half a dozen boys in man pursuit of it, among many pansies and poonies, wrecking havoc at every step."

"Yet to expel them seemed mean. There are few places where they can play. They were rough boys, most of them, not bad ones. The more I thought, the madder and weaker I appeared to run to the police with complaints of my neighbors' children. Besides, although now they were reckless of my rights, they meant no harm; but once let me call in the 'cop' against them, and all the recent inhumanity of the half-mild human boy would be roused. So I decided to manage things myself, and I have succeeded."

"That is, I call it success. I haven't reformed them—those of them who needed them all considerate and gentle and polite and polished. How should I? But I have civilized their dealings with me and mine with them, and that is something."

"If I am in the garden I toss back the ball myself when it comes over, and I hurry about it, too; the game must not be delayed. I invite them to come for it when I'm absent, or fall to see where it has gone, but only one or two at a time, and to please be careful not to step on the flower beds; my flowers are my fun as their game is theirs."

"I have told them that I know that sometimes to reach it a ball must be stepped on. Will they do it as delicately as possible, not to crush the plants? I have promised them that when the ball itself does damage I will not complain, because that is a matter of chance and nobody's fault."

"Sometimes I stop to watch their game over the wall, and applaud a good hit. Once they accepted my testimony in regard to a disputed foul. They always speak to me politely, or, if not, with no impolite intent, and although sometimes in their eagerness they 'miff' things, still it is not often. When I overheard a newcomer the other day, hear with rude contempt to 'the woman next door' he was corrected immediately—with no tone of angry championship, but merely as stating an accepted fact."

"She ain't no woman; she's Miss Brown. She's all right!"

"The noise—yes, of course, they're as noisy as ever; but it means healthy lungs and exuberance and good times, and—well—gardeners have steeled my nerves so much I've somehow grown not to mind it."

BOYS MUST NOT SWIM TOO LONG

If They Do, They May Have a Touch of Fever—Doctors Give Warning.

Boys, beware of the so-called swimming fever. The swimming fever is the name given by a local physician to a malady caused by staying too long in the water. Victims are stricken with a high fever and their condition soon becomes dangerous.

Several boys of a neighboring city have been very dangerously ill from this ailment. They have been going swimming very regularly this summer and have frequently staid in the water for long periods. The boys were all very ill for several days, but their condition is now improved. The physicians say that parents should be careful to warn their children against staying in the water too long. The results of the fever may be even more serious than those of a bad cold; but even if sickness does not result the practice produces enervation, which leaves the reckless bather in a favorable physical condition to invite attack from other ills.

As a matter of fact, the weather generally this summer, has been too cold for comfortable swimming. Those three hot days a fortnight ago made the lakes immensely popular for the time being, but chill north winds have curbed the enthusiasm for the sport.

You may be poor or wealthy, Just as your fate may be, But if you are unhealthy, Take Rocky Mountain Tea, Smith Drug Co.

LAKE GENEVA.

A strictly first class, personally conducted excursion to this peerless resort, Tuesday, Aug. 24. Round trip only $1.60. Leave Janesville on regular C. & N. W. Ry. train, 7:45 a. m. Arrive at Lake Geneva 9:40 a. m. Return leave Williams Bay 5:40 p. m. Lake Geneva 5:50 p. m. arrive at Janesville 7:50 p. m. For tickets and information apply to agents C. & N. W. Ry.

LAKE GENEVA.

A strictly first class, personally conducted excursion to this peerless resort, Tuesday, Aug. 24. Round trip only $1.60. Leave Janesville on regular C. & N. W. Ry. train, 7:45 a. m. Arrive at Lake Geneva 9:40 a. m. Return leave Williams Bay 5:40 p. m. Lake Geneva 5:50 p. m. arrive at Janesville 7:50 p. m. For tickets and information apply to agents C. & N. W. Ry.

LAKE GENEVA.

A strictly first class, personally conducted excursion to this peerless resort, Tuesday, Aug. 24. Round trip only $1.60. Leave Janesville on regular C. & N. W. Ry. train, 7:45 a. m. Arrive at Lake Geneva 9:40 a. m. Return leave Williams Bay 5:40 p. m. Lake Geneva 5:50 p. m. arrive at Janesville 7:50 p. m. For tickets and information apply to agents C. & N. W. Ry.

ADVOCATE FOR A SMALL BOYS' GAME

TAKES OLD FOGY TO TASK VERY SHARPLY.

IS A FRIEND OF THE YOUTHS

Quotes an Interesting Article on the Treatment of Youthful Ballists.

To the Editor: "Old Fogy" has several times complained of the small boys playing ball on the streets. Also the annoyance it was to the owners of property. Now, I live in the neighborhood where there is much baseball playing by ambitious youngsters. I, too, was much annoyed by the noise and ball flying into all sorts of places. Recently I read the following in the Youth's Companion, which I wish everyone could read. I ask if you will not reprint it so that even "Old Fogy," if he was once a boy himself, can appreciate it.

A four-foot board fence in a garden, where a lady of quiet tastes cultivated flowers, from a vacant lot, where boys from the side streets play ball—whirling, riotous, tumultuous and whooping ball.

"At first," she says, "I thought I must either give up my garden or get the police to turn them out. The racket alone seemed unendurable, and the ball was always flying over the fence with half a dozen boys in man pursuit of it, among many pansies and poonies, wrecking havoc at every step."

"Yet to expel them seemed mean. There are few places where they can play. They were rough boys, most of them, not bad ones. The more I thought, the madder and weaker I appeared to run to the police with complaints of my neighbors' children. Besides, although now they were reckless of my rights, they meant no harm; but once let me call in the 'cop' against them, and all the recent inhumanity of the half-mild human boy would be roused. So I decided to manage things myself, and I have succeeded."

"That is, I call it success. I haven't reformed them—those of them who needed them all considerate and gentle and polite and polished. How should I? But I have civilized their dealings with me and mine with them, and that is something."

"If I am in the garden I toss back the ball myself when it comes over, and I hurry about it, too; the game must not be delayed. I invite them to come for it when I'm absent, or fall to see where it has gone, but only one or two at a time, and to please be careful not to step on the flower beds; my flowers are my fun as their game is theirs."

"I have told them that I know that sometimes to reach it a ball must be stepped on. Will they do it as delicately as possible, not to crush the plants? I have promised them that when the ball itself does damage I will not complain, because that is a matter of chance and nobody's fault."

"Sometimes I stop to watch their game over the wall, and applaud a good hit. Once they accepted my testimony in regard to a disputed foul. They always speak to me politely, or, if not, with no impolite intent, and although sometimes in their eagerness they 'miff' things, still it is not often. When I overheard a newcomer the other day, hear with rude contempt to 'the woman next door' he was corrected immediately—with no tone of angry championship, but merely as stating an accepted fact."

"She ain't no woman; she's Miss Brown. She's all right!"

"The noise—yes, of course, they're as noisy as ever; but it means healthy lungs and exuberance and good times, and—well—gardeners have steeled my nerves so much I've somehow grown not to mind it."

BOYS MUST NOT SWIM TOO LONG

If They Do, They May Have a Touch of Fever—Doctors Give Warning.

Boys, beware of the so-called swimming fever. The swimming fever is the name given by a local physician to a malady caused by staying too long in the water. Victims are stricken with a high fever and their condition soon becomes dangerous.

Several boys of a neighboring city have been very dangerously ill from this ailment. They have been going swimming very regularly this summer and have frequently staid in the water for long periods. The boys were all very ill for several days, but their condition is now improved. The physicians say that parents should be careful to warn their children against staying in the water too long. The results of the fever may be even more serious than those of a bad cold; but even if sickness does not result the practice produces enervation, which leaves the reckless bather in a favorable physical condition to invite attack from other ills.

As a matter of fact, the weather generally this summer, has been too cold for comfortable swimming. Those three hot days a fortnight ago made the lakes immensely popular for the time being, but chill north winds have curbed the enthusiasm for the sport.

You may be poor or wealthy, Just as your fate may be, But if you are unhealthy, Take Rocky Mountain Tea, Smith Drug Co.

LAKE GENEVA.

A strictly first class, personally conducted excursion to this peerless resort, Tuesday, Aug. 24. Round trip only $1.60. Leave Janesville on regular C. & N. W. Ry. train, 7:45 a. m. Arrive at Lake Geneva 9:40 a. m. Return leave Williams Bay 5:40 p. m. Lake Geneva 5:50 p. m. arrive at Janesville 7:50 p. m. For tickets and information apply to agents C. & N. W. Ry.

LAKE GENEVA.

A strictly first class, personally conducted excursion to this peerless resort, Tuesday, Aug. 24. Round trip only $1.60. Leave Janesville on regular C. & N. W. Ry. train, 7:45 a. m. Arrive at Lake Geneva 9:40 a. m. Return leave Williams Bay 5:40 p. m. Lake Geneva 5:50 p. m. arrive at Janesville 7:50 p. m. For tickets and information apply to agents C. & N. W. Ry.

LAKE GENEVA.

A strictly first class, personally conducted excursion to this peerless resort, Tuesday, Aug. 24. Round trip only $1.60. Leave Janesville on regular C. & N. W. Ry. train, 7:45 a. m. Arrive at Lake Geneva 9:40 a. m. Return leave Williams Bay 5:40 p. m. Lake Geneva 5:50 p. m. arrive at Janesville 7:50 p. m. For tickets and information apply to agents C. & N. W. Ry.

JULY WEATHER IN CONDENSED FORM

What the Temperature Has Been at the Government Thermometer During Last Thirty Days.

July was quite like a spring month except for a week of excessively hot weather. Field products and vegetation in general made remarkable progress and there is little fear now that a repetition of last year's bad conditions will occur. The hottest day of the month was July 16, when the thermometer registered 97 degrees above zero at Belmont street. Real cool nights were few, the lowest temperature registered being 48, July 2.

The precipitation was 10 inches less than in the corresponding month of last year. The amount of water that fell was 4.02 inches, as against 3.23 in July of 1903. The biggest fall of water on any single day was July 31 when the total precipitation was 3.9 inches.

Following is the monthly data of the maximum and minimum temperatures as recorded at Belmont street's drugstore:

	Max. Min.
1	74 42
2	73 48
3	80 62
4	78 62
5	80 56
6	68 61
7	80 61
8	80 62
9	72 68
10	82 56
11	82 62
12	82 58
13	78 59
14	84 64
15	84 62
16	97 65
17	95 73
18	93 72
19	81 89
20	81 63
21	82 60
22	72 59
23	76 53
24	81 52
25	81 56
26	80 62
27	76 61
28	80 57
29	86 60
30	86 66
31	84 68

Highest temperature, 97 degrees; lowest, 48.

Mrs. Hiram Sanderson, Janesville—Our baby was never strong; our physician advised Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. One package made her strong, rosy and healthy. Thanks to your tea, Smith Drug Co.

Real Estate Transfers

Louise J. R. Kent to Paul A. Huges $750.00 lot 38 Mitchell's 2d Add Janesville.

Sarah A. Martin to Cora M. Patterson et al pt lot 32 Leonard's & Mygatt's Add Evansville.

Roland Howard & wife to Anna L. Barker $450.00 lot 14 Howard's Add Beloit.

Emma D. Kimball to Anna L. Barker $350.00 lot 9 Howard's Add Beloit.

Trains at Convenient Hours

Over the Pennsylvania Lines from Chicago to Indianapolis, Louisville, Columbus, Cincinnati and all points south. Agents of connecting lines will be glad to sell you through tickets reading over the Pennsylvania Short Lines and make your sleeping car reservations. If you will write Geo. R. Thompson, 83 Michigan St., Milwaukee, Wis., he will cheerfully give you full information as to train service, etc.

The only high grade Baking Powder made at a moderate price.

Calumet Baking Powder

GET IN LINE!

New Electric Park

The Gazette

Want Ads.

3 Lines 3 Times - 25 cents
Extra lines 3 Times 10 cts.
4 Lines 1 Month - $2.00
Extra Lines 1 Month .50

ADVERTISERS, who may wish to have letters addressed to a letter or number at the Gazette office, may do so.

PERSONS REPLYING to an advertisement in this column must use the address as printed in it. Don't telephone the office to learn the advertiser's name, for in no case will the advertiser's name and address be given. This rule is inviolable.

WANT ADS.

WANTED—Competent man for 18 years of experience, for employment about August 15th. Mrs. H. H. Bliss, 156 Jackson st., corner of 8th, Second St.

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework. Mrs. H. C. Dwyer, 222 West Milwaukee street.

WANTED—Four good reliable men to carry cases. Can suit big money. Call at 8 a.m. Saturday or Sunday, 417 Hayes block, Toledo.

WANTED—Lady or gentleman of fair education, to teach for a term of $20000 capital. Salary $1000 per year and expenses; paid weekly. Address with stamp, J. A. Alexander, Janesville, Wis.

WANTED—Several good mechanics. Address Editor of the Gazette, 125 N. Main St.

WANTED—By young Catholic widow—a housekeeper. Must be Catholic, from 25 to 35 years old; must be steady and respectable. Steady place and light work for the right price. Address H. Murphy, 505 Edwards St., Rockford, Ill.

WANTED—Room and board in private family, by young man and wife. West side preferred, near business district. Address F. B. Carter, 212 N. Main St.

WANTED—To learn the barber trade. Whiteaker, 125 N. Main St.

WANTED AT ONCE—Work of any kind, by a middle aged man, must be respectable. Win. Jude, 212 N. Main St.

WANTED—A competent man who thoroughly understands the printing and writing business. Address in care of the Gazette, 125 N. Main St.

WANTED—Competent girl for housework; to wash, iron, small family; good wages. Enquire at 58 N. Academy street.

WANTED—By U. S. Army—Able bodied and married men between ages of 21 and 25; citizens of United States; of good character and temperate habits; who can speak and write English. For information apply to Mr. J. M. Williams, Recruiting Office, Park Hotel, Janesville, Wis.

WANTED—Sawing of all kinds, done in the class style, and reasonable. Systems reduced to $10. Now in your chance. 37 Locust St.

MRS. E. McCarthy, 276 W. Milwaukee street, will furnish help at short notice. She will also place for girls looking for a good home. Confections and cigars. New phone No. 915, old phone, 4122.

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Five room house in good condition. Located at 461 South Franklin street. Harry Dasekosen.

FOR RENT—Furnished rooms at 110 North Jackson street.

FOR RENT—Large furnished room, suitable for two gentlemen, all modern conveniences. 102 S. Second street.

FOR RENT—After the 15th—One half of a double house on Center avenue. Enquire at 24 Center avenue.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—One National cash register; one National typewriter; one National adding machine. W. J. Cannon, 123 West Milwaukee street.

BARGAINS, BARGAINS! The following list of pulpers can be bought at your prices. They must be disposed of; we need the items. Ask for information at Gazette office:

12 in. from pulper, 5 in. wide, can be used on either 2 in. or 1 1/2 in. shaft.

12 in. from pulper, 5 in. wide, 1 1/2 in. shaft.

12 in. from pulper, 5 in. wide, 1 1/2 in. shaft.

12 in. from pulper, 5 in. wide, 1 1/2 in. shaft.

12 in. from pulper, 5 in. wide, 1 1/2 in. shaft.

12 in. from pulper, 5 in. wide, 1 1/2 in. shaft.

12 in. from pulper, 5 in. wide, 1 1/2 in. shaft.

12 in. from pulper, 5 in. wide, 1 1/2 in. shaft.

12 in. from pulper, 5 in. wide, 1 1/2 in. shaft.

12 in. from pulper, 5 in. wide, 1 1/2 in. shaft.

12 in. from pulper, 5 in. wide, 1 1/2 in. shaft.

12 in. from pulper, 5 in. wide, 1 1/2 in. shaft.

12 in. from pulper, 5 in. wide, 1 1/2 in. shaft.

12 in. from pulper, 5 in. wide, 1 1/2 in. shaft.

12 in. from pulper, 5 in. wide, 1 1/2 in. shaft.

12 in. from pulper, 5 in. wide, 1 1/2 in. shaft.

12 in. from pulper, 5 in. wide, 1 1/2 in. shaft.

12 in. from pulper, 5 in. wide, 1 1/2 in. shaft.

12 in. from pulper, 5 in. wide, 1 1/2 in. shaft.

12 in. from pulper, 5 in. wide, 1 1/2 in. shaft.

12 in. from pulper, 5 in. wide, 1 1/2 in. shaft.

12 in. from pulper, 5 in. wide, 1 1/2 in. shaft.

12 in. from pulper, 5 in. wide, 1 1/2 in. shaft.

...Forty Years Ago...

Janesville Daily Gazette, Monday, August 1, 1864.—Bound Over.—Mrs. Phoebe O. Fairchild was this morning bound over in the sum of $500 by Justice Hudson to appear before the circuit court and answer to the charge of stealing silk from the store of Rice, Gaul & Rice.

Something Good.—Mrs. Gustave Fritz has sent us a bottle of Seidlitz water imported by him from the celebrated springs in Germany. It is said to possess certain medicinal properties similar to the water of the Saratoga Springs.

A tornado swept through Columbus, Ohio, last Wednesday, unroofing buildings, etc. The Statesman says: "The gale swept across the Seneca valley, leveling the corn with the earth as it went. Considerable damage was in this way inflicted upon the crop, but its extent cannot be fully estimated. In the open country rail fences were lifted in the air and scattered in all directions. The storm seemed to have exhausted its strength upon the city, far to the east, its track was not distinctly marked as it was on the west side."

Almost a Serious Accident.—There was a narrow escape from a serious accident near the depot in this city on Saturday afternoon last. Just after the train moved from the platform and before much speed had been attained, a wheel from one of the coaches filled with passengers came off, throwing the cars from the track. Slight injury to the car and a detention of a few minutes were the only damages. It makes one shudder to think of what might have been the result had the train been going faster.

The sale of furniture advertised by H. C. Hoernance to take place tomorrow is postponed by reason of sickness in the family until further notice.

of agent of Chicago & North-Western R'y.

The Chicago & North-Western railroad will run an excursion to Fort Sheridan and Zion City, Wednesday, August 10. Fare for the round trip, $1.50. Train leaves Janesville at 7:40 a. m., and returning arrives here at 7:50 p. m.

"Now good digestion waits on appetite, and health on both." If it doesn't try Burdock Blood Bitters.

Diphtheria, sore throat, croup, instant relief, permanent cure, Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. At any drug store.

"Cure the cough and save the life." Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup cures coughs and colds, down to the very verge of consumption.

"I had a running, itching sore on my leg. Suffered tortures. Doan's Ointment took away the burning and itching instantly, and quickly effected permanent cure." C. W. Lehart, Bowling Green, O.

Friday and Saturday Excursion Rates to Devils Lake, Wis.

Via the North-Western line, Excursion tickets to this beautiful summer resort are on sale Fridays and Saturdays limited for return until the Monday following, affording opportunity for enjoying this delightful outing without inconvenience to business. Apply to agents Chicago & North-Western R'y.

STANDING OF BASEBALL CLUBS

American League.
Boston	52	31	.622
Chicago	43	33	.562
St. Louis	42	34	.552
Cleveland	42	34	.552
Philadelphia	42	34	.552
St. Paul	42	34	.552
Washington	42	34	.552
National League.
New York	52	31	.622
Chicago	43	33	.562
St. Louis	42	34	.552
Cleveland	42	34	.552
Philadelphia	42	34	.552
St. Paul	42	34	.552
Washington	42	34	.552

Excursion Rates to Yellowstone National Park.

Via the North-Western line, daily, with favorable return limits. Variable routes. Most wonderful scenery in the world. Apply to agents Chicago & North-Western R'y.

Excursion Tickets to Milwaukee, Wis.

Via the North-Western line, will be sold July 27 to 30, inclusive, limited to return until August 1, inclusive, on account of biennial Saengerfest.

Half Rates to Madison, Wis.

Via the North-Western line, Excursion tickets sold at one fare for round trip July 26 and 27, limited to return until July 29, inclusive, account of prohibition state convention.

Round Trip Excursion Tickets to St. Paul and Minneapolis.

Via the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway June 1 to September 30 with final return limit October 31, 1904. Three routes to St. Paul and Minneapolis via the St. Paul road. Ask the ticket agent for train service, rates, etc.

Excursion Rates to the Dells via C. & N. W. R'y.

For the benefit of those desiring to visit the Dells of the Wisconsin river at Kiltourn, Wis., excursion tickets will be on sale daily until Sept. 30, 1904. Special rates Fridays and Saturdays and for parties of ten or more.

$50 California and Return—Personal.

Conducted Trains.

From Chicago to San Francisco without change, via the Chicago, Union Pacific and North-Western line. Special personally conducted parties leave Chicago Aug. 18th and Aug. 25th. Itinerary includes stopovers at Denver, Colorado Springs and Salt Lake City. Low rates; choice of routes returning. Tickets on sale from all points at low rates daily August 15th to Sept. 10. Two fast daily trains over the double-track railway between Chicago and the Missouri, and the via the most direct route across the American continent. The Overland Limited, solid through train every day in the year, less than three days en route. For itineraries of special trains and full information apply to ticket agents Chicago & North-Western R'y.

Special Low Rates to Boston Account G. A. R. Encampment, August 14-16.

An unusually large movement is expected as the result of the low rates to Boston and return, which will be in effect for that occasion via the North-Western line from all points west and northwest.

The present indications point to a larger attendance than at any encampment that has been held for several years, as these low rates offer an excellent opportunity to visit the mountains and seashore resorts of the eastern states.

Special through car arrangements will be provided from a large number of points on the North-Western line. Connection is made via Chicago with all eastern lines. Full information can be secured from the nearest ticket agent.

License Transfers Are Illegal.

Joliet, Ill., Aug. 1.—Attorney General Hamlin has given out his opinion that the transfer of liquor licenses from one party to another, which practice is general among city councils throughout the state, is contrary to law.

New Postmasters.

Washington, Aug. 1.—F. R. Young has been appointed postmaster of Metropolis, Ill., and W. J. Lincoln of Mount Pulaski.

tered in all directions. The storm seemed to have exhausted its strength upon the city, far to the east, its track was not distinctly marked as it was on the west side."

Almost a Serious Accident.—There was a narrow escape from a serious accident near the depot in this city on Saturday afternoon last. Just after the train moved from the platform and before much speed had been attained, a wheel from one of the coaches filled with passengers came off, throwing the cars from the track. Slight injury to the car and a detention of a few minutes were the only damages. It makes one shudder to think of what might have been the result had the train been going faster.

The sale of furniture advertised by H. C. Hoernance to take place tomorrow is postponed by reason of sickness in the family until further notice.

of agent of Chicago & North-Western R'y.

The Chicago & North-Western railroad will run an excursion to Fort Sheridan and Zion City, Wednesday, August 10. Fare for the round trip, $1.50. Train leaves Janesville at 7:40 a. m., and returning arrives here at 7:50 p. m.

"Now good digestion waits on appetite, and health on both." If it doesn't try Burdock Blood Bitters.

Diphtheria, sore throat, croup, instant relief, permanent cure, Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. At any drug store.

"Cure the cough and save the life." Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup cures coughs and colds, down to the very verge of consumption.

"I had a running, itching sore on my leg. Suffered tortures. Doan's Ointment took away the burning and itching instantly, and quickly effected permanent cure." C. W. Lehart, Bowling Green, O.

Friday and Saturday Excursion Rates to Devils Lake, Wis.

Via the North-Western line, Excursion tickets to this beautiful summer resort are on sale Fridays and Saturdays limited for return until the Monday following, affording opportunity for enjoying this delightful outing without inconvenience to business. Apply to agents Chicago & North-Western R'y.

STANDING OF BASEBALL CLUBS

American League.
Boston	52	31	.622
Chicago	43	33	.562
St. Louis	42	34	.552
Cleveland	42	34	.552
Philadelphia	42	34	.552
St. Paul	42	34	.552
Washington	42	34	.552
National League.
New York	52	31	.622
Chicago	43	33	.562
St. Louis	42	34	.552
Cleveland	42	34	.552
Philadelphia	42	34	.552
St. Paul	42	34	.552
Washington	42	34	.552

Excursion Rates to Yellowstone National Park.

Via the North-Western line, daily, with favorable return limits. Variable routes. Most wonderful scenery in the world. Apply to agents Chicago & North-Western R'y.

Excursion Tickets to Milwaukee, Wis.

Via the North-Western line, will be sold July 27 to 30, inclusive, limited to return until August 1, inclusive, on account of biennial Saengerfest.

Half Rates to Madison, Wis.

Via the North-Western line, Excursion tickets sold at one fare for round trip July 26 and 27, limited to return until July 29, inclusive, account of prohibition state convention.

Round Trip Excursion Tickets to St. Paul and Minneapolis.

Via the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway June 1 to September 30 with final return limit October 31, 1904. Three routes to St. Paul and Minneapolis via the St. Paul road. Ask the ticket agent for train service, rates, etc.

Excursion Rates to the Dells via C. & N. W. R'y.

For the benefit of those desiring to visit the Dells of the Wisconsin river at Kiltourn, Wis., excursion tickets will be on sale daily until Sept. 30, 1904. Special rates Fridays and Saturdays and for parties of ten or more.

$50 California and Return—Personal.

Conducted Trains.

From Chicago to San Francisco without change, via the Chicago, Union Pacific and North-Western line. Special personally conducted parties leave Chicago Aug. 18th and Aug. 25th. Itinerary includes stopovers at Denver, Colorado Springs and Salt Lake City. Low rates; choice of routes returning. Tickets on sale from all points at low rates daily August 15th to Sept. 10. Two fast daily trains over the double-track railway between Chicago and the Missouri, and the via the most direct route across the American continent. The Overland Limited, solid through train every day in the year, less than three days en route. For itineraries of special trains and full information apply to ticket agents Chicago & North-Western R'y.

Special Low Rates to Boston Account G. A. R. Encampment, August 14-16.

An unusually large movement is expected as the result of the low rates to Boston and return, which will be in effect for that occasion via the North-Western line from all points west and northwest.

The present indications point to a larger attendance than at any encampment that has been held for several years, as these low rates offer an excellent opportunity to visit the mountains and seashore resorts of the eastern states.

Special through car arrangements will be provided from a large number of points on the North-Western line. Connection is made via Chicago with all eastern lines. Full information can be secured from the nearest ticket agent.

License Transfers Are Illegal.

Joliet, Ill., Aug. 1.—Attorney General Hamlin has given out his opinion that the transfer of liquor licenses from one party to another, which practice is general among city councils throughout the state, is contrary to law.

New Postmasters.

Washington, Aug. 1.—F. R. Young has been appointed postmaster of Metropolis, Ill., and W. J. Lincoln of Mount Pulaski.

Special Reduced Excursion Rates

Will be in effect from all points on the Chicago & North-Western Railway for the occasions named below: Louisville, Ky., Aug. 16-29, K. P. Encampment.

San Francisco, Sept. 5th to 9th, Triennial Conclave Knights Templar, San Francisco, Sept. 19th to 25th, Sovereign Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. For information as to rates, dates of sale, etc., of these or other occasions, call upon ticket agent of the North-Western line.

Low Rates to St. Louis, Mo., Louisiana Purchase Exposition, April 15 to May 1, 1904. Via the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, round trip excursion tickets on sale daily April 15 to November 30, 1904. For time of trains, routes, rates, limits and other information ask the ticket agent of the C. M. & St. P. Ry. Phone 191.

LAKE GENEVA. A strictly first class, personally conducted excursion to this peerless resort, Tuesday, Aug. 24. Round trip only $1.00. Leave Janesville on regular C. & N. W. Ry. train, 7:45 a. m. Arrive at Lake Geneva 9:40 a. m.; Williams Bay, 9:50 a. m. Returning leave Williams Bay 5:40 p. m.; Lake Geneva 5:50 p. m., arrive at Janesville 7:50 p. m. For tickets and information apply to agents C. & N. W. Ry.

THE COLORADO SPECIAL

Chicago, Union Pacific & North-Western line.

This solid through train, only one night to Denver, will, beginning July 10th, leave Chicago at 7:00 p. m., reaching Denver next evening at 9:00 o'clock. A perfectly appointed train.

Another Colorado train leaves Chicago daily at 11:00 p. m., arriving Denver early the second morning.

The route of these trains is over the only double-track railway between Chicago and the Missouri river. The best of everything.

The Chicago-Portland Special now leaving Chicago 10:30 p. m., will, beginning the above date, leave daily at 11:00 p. m., with through sleeping car service to San Francisco, Los Angeles and Portland. Low rates now in effect daily. Ask ticket agents for particulars.

Excursion Rates to Epworth Grove (Ill.) Camp Meeting.

Via the North-Western line, Excursion tickets will be sold at reduced rates Aug. 2 to 14, inclusive, limited to return until Aug. 15, inclusive. Apply to agents Chicago & North-Western R'y.

Reduced Round Trip Excursion Tickets.

From Janesville via the C. M. & St. P. Ry., Delavan, Wis., Aug. 1 and 8; Assembly, Rockford, Ill., Aug. 5; St. Paul and Minneapolis, Aug. 6 to 11, inclusive; Freeport, Aug. 9-12 (cross); Edgerton, Wis., Aug. 10 (Irish picnic). For details apply to the ticket agent.

Very Low Excursion Rates to Boston, Mass.

Via the North-Western line, Excursion tickets will be sold August 11, 12 and 13, limited by extension to return until September 30, inclusive, on account of G. A. R. Encampment. Apply to agents Chicago & North-Western R'y.

Summer Tourist Tickets on Sale via C. M. & St. P. R. R.

From Janesville every day excursions to Lake Kegonsa and McFarland (Lake Waubesa). Tickets on sale daily until Sept. 30, limited to return until October 31, 1904.

Delavan Lake Assembly.

Ninety-five cents for the round trip from Janesville via the St. Paul railway, Aug. 1 and Aug. 6. Return limit, Aug. 8. Other dates tickets sold on the certificate plan reduction.

A sale of Skirts at $5

Mohair Skirts the favorite skirt for summer wear in colors, as black navy, tan, castor, grey and white, such skirts as have been priced at $6, $6 1/2, $7 1/2 and $8; all on sale at a choice for one price, FIVE DOLLARS. Also included at same figure are a large line of Mens Suits Skirts, which have been at the same prices as the above line, but now on sale at a choice for..... $5

It's the opportunity to buy new stylish skirts at a popular price—alterations without charge

$8 Suits Every day reduces the line—many have bought at this very low price and there are still a number of high grade tailored suits to be had at the same figure—$15, $18, $20 and $25 suits at..... $8

Simpson
DRY GOODS

WHICH?

San Francisco or Boston.

SAN FRANCISCO and return from JANESVILLE $61.00 going one way via CANADIAN PACIFIC RY. through the world-famous Canadian Rockies with their 600 miles of Stupendous Mountain Peaks, Awe Inspiring Canyons and Mighty Cataracts.

Tickets good to go Aug. 15th to Sept. 10th.

BOSTON and return from JANESVILLE, $20.75, through Canada via the CANADIAN PACIFIC RY. giving an opportunity to travel through

The Thousand Isles, Rapids of the St. Lawrence, Toronto (the Queen City), Ottawa (the Capital), Montreal (the Metropolis), Quebec (the Ancient).

Tickets good to go Aug. 12th, 13th and 14th—Proportionate rates from all other points. All Agents can sell tickets by these routes. For further information and illustrated literature, write:

A. C. SHAW, General Agent, Chicago.

"The Silver Moon"

A. McLellan invites you one and all.

Most exacting customers, at his place to call. Choice wines and pure aged liquors too.

Leading brands of case goods he has for you.

Eager to please, "Mac" will always try

Late or early, your every

THE JANESVILLE GAZETTE.

Entered at the postoffice at Janesville, Wisconsin, as second class mail matter.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION
Daily Edition—By Carrier
One Year $10.00
Six Months $5.00
Three Months $2.50
One Year—Cash in Advance $9.00
Six Months—Cash in Advance $4.50
Three Months—Cash in Advance $2.25
Daily Edition—By Mail
One Year $10.00
Six Months $5.00
Three Months $2.50
One Year—Cash in Advance $9.00
Six Months—Cash in Advance $4.50
Three Months—Cash in Advance $2.25
Business Office 77-3
Editorial Rooms 77-3

Fair tonight and Tuesday generally fair; slightly cooler with westerly winds.

REPUBLICAN TICKETS.

NATIONAL TICKET
For President—THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
For Vice President—CHAS. W. FAIRBANKS.
For Congressman—H. A. COOPER.

STATE TICKET
For Governor—S. A. COOK, Winnebago.
For Lieutenant Governor—GEORGE H. RAY, La Crosse.
For Secretary of State—NELS P. HOLMAN, Deerfield.
For State Treasurer—GUSTAV WOLLAEGER, Milwaukee.
For Attorney General—DAVID G. CLASON, Oconto.
For Railroad Commissioner—F. O. TAYLOR, Ashland.
For Insurance Commissioner—DAVID C. ROENITZ, Sheboygan.
For State Senator—JOHN M. WHITEHEAD.
For Assemblyman, 1st District—A. S. HARKER.
For Assemblyman, 2d District—PLINY NORCROSS.
For Assemblyman, 3d District—W. O. HANSON.

COUNTY TICKET
For Sheriff—WALLACE COCHRANE.
For Treasurer—OLIVE P. SMITH.
For County Clerk—HOWARD LEE.
For Register of Deeds—CHAS. WEIRICK.
For Dist. Atty.—WILLIAM O. NEWHOUSE.
For Clerk of Court—WARD STEVENS.

VERDICT OF THE PARTY

From the report of the committee on Credentials to the REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION, which was unanimously adopted by that convention, June 23, 1904.

Your committee report it to be their final judgment that the convention which elected John G. Spooner, J. V. Quarles, J. W. Babcock and Emil Kuehner as delegates at large, and their alternates at large, to this convention from the state of Wisconsin WAS THE REGULAR CONVENTION OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IN WISCONSIN, and that the delegates elected by it are the regular elected delegates at large from the state of Wisconsin to the republican convention, and, as such, are entitled to seats in this convention.

WHAT IS PROSPERITY.
The vast majority of mankind is doomed to work for a living. A man will spend, say, nine hours of his day in sleeping or preparing to sleep or getting up. He will spend three hours or thereabouts going to and returning from his work and at his meals; he will work anywhere from nine to ten hours. Thus he spends out of the twenty-four hours, twenty-one to twenty-two in working, or in recruiting his strength for work. The remaining two or three hours are so to speak his profit on the day during which time he can enjoy the society of his family and recreate as he pleases. That is about how the day works on an average for the average working man.

Now he works in order that he may provide himself and those who are dependent upon him for food, fuel, clothing and shelter, and something for nothing else that he performs his work. It is, therefore, clear that the more that he can get of these things for his day's work, the more prosperous he is. The more commodities a man gets for his day's wage the better off he is because he can save more; consequently prosperity for the average working man means abundance of commodities at moderate prices, and steady employment.

Cheap commodities alone will not suffice, for if a man is not working he has no wages with which to buy commodities. Among the factors that tend to render his employment precarious is such depression in business which brings reduced consumption to commodities and, therefore, which brings overproduction of commodities with very low prices for them. The man who is employed in depressed times is then usually more prosperous, because his wages or his salary will purchase for him more than in times of active business, when commodities are worth something. It has often been a matter of comment among salaried men who had positions during the bad times of 1893 to 1897 that they were better off then than they have been since. The number of unemployed at that time, however, was so great that the sum total of prosperity in the country was undoubtedly small. The revival of business came in 1897 and progressed, without any very great advance in commodities until 1899, at which time the total prosperity was larger, so far as the working population was concerned, than it has been since. Since 1899, prices of commodities have advanced very materially, and while this was accompanied by a decrease in the number of the unemployed, it is probably fair to say that on the whole the position of the average bookkeeper, clerk, day laborer and mechanic has since then changed for the worse.

There is a point where the sum total of prosperity is largest, and this sum total usually is found to be largest before the boom starts; when the boom starts prices of everything tend upwards very rapidly, and experience shows that commodities rise faster than does labor. The boom goes on until finally it overshoots the mark and commodities come down again.

The essence of prosperity consists in abundance of commodities at moderate prices, and abundance of employment for labor. We cannot hold with Secretary Shaw that high prices are of themselves a good thing.

Those affidavits which the third-termers are storing up for campaign usage may be believed by men who did not attend the convention, but those who really were hustled around by the trained athletes and game wardens and general thugs and jail birds know what actually existed.

Let nothing stop your calculations. Roosevelt will have the solid Wisconsin vote next fall and the majority will not be much less than it was for McKinley in 1896 and 1900. Wisconsin is not a doubtful state when the question of national politics comes up for an issue.

Judge Parker is still at the fore front of the eastern press. Many of them are on the fence and cannot understand the situation like the Chicago Chronicle which makes no bones of calling democracy dangerous.

So Mr. Taggart is to look after Wisconsin and Indiana. Well, Mr. Taggart will have his hands full. Wisconsin will go republican no matter who is elected governor, as sure as apples fall.

Dickens was not so far wrong when he wrote to Fagin, the thief trainer. Both New York and Chicago have discovered similar cases to the famous London event existing in their midst.

Mr. Bryan feels very friendly towards the Wisconsin reformer because he knows what a hard job it is to make all the people believe that "anisms" is all right.

Even though the poor persecuted Jews were killed by the wholesale at the Kishineff massacres, they are gallantly fighting Russia's battles for her both with purse and pen.

Some people learn it is bad to monkey with dynamite after they have been blown up but once, but others have to take a second ascension.

The meat question in Chicago is making many a Chicago man green with envy when he thinks of the Lappers and how they are satisfied with a bit of blubber.

Senator Fairbanks does not yet know that he has been nominated. When he does he may break the silence that he has wrapped himself in for months past.

William Jennings Bryan admires Mr. Babbitt and who knows the venerable gentleman does not. But Mr. Babbitt like Mr. Bryan belongs to another day and age of democracy.

Remember that this week is circus week and so if strange characters appear beware and keep your house locked up securely when you leave it.

Showmen in everyday life are just like other mortals, but some way the glamour of the circus smell makes them seem like wonderful beings to the small boy.

It is safe to say there will not be a small boy in Janesville Thursday noon who cannot tell you all about the Barnum & Bailey show and just how many elephants it has.

There is one thing that annoys the game warden and that is that he must make a bluff to earn his money by organizing at least one republican club.

Chicago can always furnish a couple of columns of stuff with murders, strikes and hold-ups on its streets every day of the year.

The Milwaukee Daily News tells so many truths about the administration that the Free Press does not take the time to try and answer them.

When one millionaire gets mad at another millionaire he can tell facts that interest the man who is never satisfied with his position.

There are some things that Secretary Cortelyou will have to do and some he will not do, but the one he will do is to elect Roosevelt.

The Japs think they are having a pretty hard time convincing the Russian that he is beaten and had best go home.

France had rather that England would not worry about the far eastern country any more than is necessary.

Despite the so-called authentic tips of the Free Press Indian Commissioner Jones is not going to resign his office just yet.

At last Uncle Samuel will have to write a letter to his cousin the bar asking him not to be so big a hog as to take all that flour on the Korea.

The Sultan of Morocco must have been reading ancient history about the time he saw the stars and stripes come sailing into port.

Weeds have stopped the catching of carp in Lake Koshkonong, but not their increase. They will grow as fast this summer as ever.

The police cannot do everything and need the co-operation of every citizen who desires for the best interests of the city.

England once claimed that she was mistress of the seas but that was long ago and Uncle Sam took that idea out of her head.

For presidential year the country seems to be doing fairly well and the crops growing a little better than usual.

There is an old saying that when thieves begin to fight then the honest man can walk the streets in safety.

Many a man is waiting for the supreme court to say what he really is in the political turmoil that exists.

The Mikado may be head of the Japs' religion, but he has a lot of good generals fighting for him.

If the weather man could only always be relied upon to tell the truth and nothing but the truth.

These game wardens who have mosquito cures are men who never saw a mosquito usually.

Chicago is turning out more boy handits to the square inch than any other city in the world.

There is much to be thankful for in this world. For instance, there is not a civil war.

Despite the fact it is hot weather the prices of coal do not seem to have dropped any.

Weeds some way will grow despite the edict against them as pronounced by the farmer.

The Milwaukee Journal is keeping up the good work of boosting at so much per boost.

Now comes Venezuela to do a little bit of seizing on its own account.

Farmers could certainly have made hay while the sun shone this past month.

Columbia is really more of an Opera Bouffe than was at first thought.

It is a question if that Court street bridge holds together until it can be repaired.

Even the Czar trembles in fear lest he will be the next of the assassin's victims.

Men dope horses and men take dope and then dope takes them.

Russia continues to retreat and may soon reach St. Petersburg.

England is not afraid but she remembers the Crimean war.

Roosevelt is back in Washington despite the hot weather.

Russia loses Port Arthur about twice a week.

Port Arthur it seems has not fallen.

PRESS COMMENT
Milwaukee Sentinel: A catalogue of scandals developed during Gov. La Follette's two administrations would string out like an old fashioned northern Wisconsin tax list.

Madison Journal: Politics is one of the things that flourish most when the weather is too bad for anything else to grow.

Port Washington Star: After all La Follette is using and treating Roosevelt like some people do religion—as a cloak—in the hope of drawing votes.

Oakbrook Northwestern: In taunting Judge Parker with his own decision regarding the right of a person to control his own photographs, Miss Robertson must feel that her revenge is worth the price.

Menasha Record: Men will strike and suffer dollars loss in wages to try to gain cents in increases. Meanwhile the public suffers more than dollar loss, and who gains? Only the agitator who is using the workmen as a catspaw.

Waukesha Freeman: Genial ex-Governor Peck gives assurances that if he is nominated for governor and he learns of a man who wants to support him, he is willing to go and see him and get him into line. It is evident that the qualities that secured Peck many votes in former times are not all squeezed out.

Chicago Record-Herald: Colonel Bryan says Colonel Roosevelt is not a man of much. We don't believe, however, that this will entitle Colonel Bryan to the distinction of being classed as an original discoverer.

Chicago Chronicle: Consecration to the holy cause of labor does not, it appears, debar the consecrated one from living at a pretty good hotel while the horny-handed one on strike sleeps under a board walk—if he can find one unoccupied.

Evening Wisconsin: The dug-out appears to be the Chicago school for the graduation of boy-murderers. Rendezvous of this kind should be promptly broken up in the interest of youngsters who are finding bad company in them.

La Crosse Leader-Press: Von Pichew's assassin will be punished, but anarchy still lives to strike again when the chance comes. Nothing can be said for it, nor for the conditions which make its propagation a possibility. Only when the latter are remedied will the former disappear.

Milwaukee News: What, show those game wardens vouchers? Well, hardly. They were not made for exhibition purposes. Anybody who doubts the word of "reform" would be about the vouchers anyhow. The truth is not in them.

Waupaca Post: The attitude of Senator Stout, as stated in the interview last week, is one which is republican, from any aspect, and one which eighty per cent. of the republicans of the state will endorse.

Racine News: Curtiss writes from Manila that the two faults of Americans are "criticizing the government" and "not going to church." But then, the same thing happens here. He says that the British marauders in India and Burma are very religious and devout.

Superior Telegram: Soon the political spellbinder will be with us, perchance loudly proclaiming that with one eye immovably fixed upon the unfortunate middle in Wisconsin politics we raise the other to view the folds of the glorious emblem of American liberty as in the gentle breeze it flaps defiance at the effete monarchies of the old world.

Boston Transcript: Without New York Judge Parker would cut but a sorry figure at the close of the contest. The democrats take for granted his ability to carry it in all their figuring and insist that he possesses a personal popularity that will sweep away the republican organization. The extent of this popularity remains to be demonstrated, for his election as chief justice did not reveal him as a peculiarly powerful personality. He won by a fluke, and the democrats have never since succeeded in wresting the control of that state from the republicans.

New York Tribune: It is time to put a stop to motor madness. We mean both kinds of madness, that of the begoggled "scorchers," who drive his locomotive at furious speed upon the highway without regard for limb or life of himself or of others, and also that of those who in impatient exasperation hurt stones or shoot bullets at the "scorching" lawbreakers. Doubtless it is not right to shoot at motormen or at their engines, though it is not difficult to understand how strong the provocation to do so is at times. That form of madness must be checked. But so must be checked the inclining cause of it, which is far more prevalent.

PRIZES AWARDED BY EGG-O-SEE CO.

Contest Has Been Going on for Some Months Past—Several Prizes Are Given.

The Egg-O-See Co. of Quincy, Ill., have just awarded the prizes on the spelling contest, the advertisement for which has been appearing for some time in this paper. The interest in this contest was remarkable and there were nearly 500,000 coupons returned to the Egg-O-See people with the different ways of spelling Egg-O-See.

The committee that passed on the contest and awarded the prizes consisted of Prof. L. B. McKenna of the Nat'l Business college of Quincy, Ill., D. S. McCoy and C. S. Painter of the Painter-Tobey-Jones Advertising agency of Chicago, Ill.

The committee confined itself strictly to the conditions laid down in the advertisement. No list was considered unless accompanied by coupons and no way of spelling the way Egg-O-See was allowed which did not find a precedent in the usage of the English language.

The committee decided that a letter must not be repeated more than twice and did not allow such spelling as Egg-Gos-See. The committee did not count different divisions of syllables as different spellings. No syllable was accepted as being spelled correctly that could not be verified by some similar pronunciation in a standard dictionary. For instance, "eo," in the word "Yeoman," and so on through.

The committee carried out their work with absolute fairness and the Egg-O-See Co. have maintained their reputation in these contests as always dealing fairly with the public.

The following is the list of the five capital prizes:

Correct ways of spelling
1st—Mrs. J. C. Smith, 1506
Tapeka St., Wichita, Kas. 1581 $100
2d—Mrs. J. C. Frick, 1115
Gordon St., Peoria, Ill. 987 75
3d—John W. Griffith, 625
W. Jersey St., Galesburg, Ill. 924 50
4th—Isabelle Dougherty,
Kincald, Kas. 800 25
5th—Leroy Bernbach, 20th and Vine Sts., Quincy, Ill. 789 10

Insults in Cambodia.
The following is quoted by the Gaulois from a French government report: "To cut off his head is the most serious insult that can be shown to a Cambodian; happily, this prejudice is not shared by the other people of Indo-China."

Kilkenny Castle Is Old.
Kilkenny Castle, Ireland, is one of the oldest habitations in the world. Many of the rooms are the same as they were 500 years ago.

We wish to inform the people of Janesville that the "Pantorium" has changed hands. Hereafter clothes will be called for and delivered to any part of the city.

Your patronage is solicited and prompt and satisfactory service guaranteed.

We will keep your clothes pressed and shoes shined for $1.00 per month.

Give us a trial.

Very respectfully yours,
GUY & HORNEFFER,
61 West Milwaukee St.
Telephone 4823, Old.

10Cts for Irish Bread
It's a 2 lb. loaf potato bread and it's very popular. Have you tried it.
REILLY, 107 W. Milwaukee St.

Sundries In The Bicycle Line...
Be it valve cap, washer, wrenches, tubes, tires or "what not" we have the goods and the prices low prices.
RELIABLE BICYCLE SHOP, Corn Exchange Square

Threshing Coal.

Indiana Block - $5.50
Hocking - - - $5.50

Clean, Free Burning Coal - Best Kinds.

PEOPLES' COAL CO.
Yards at 9 Adams Street, Phone 293.
City Office at Badger Drug Store, Both Phones 178.

"GET THE HABIT"

It's a good one and one you'll never regret if you live to be a hundred—the longer you live the better you'll like it. What habit? Saving your money. This is not a lecture, not a sermon—simply a suggestion for your own good. Deposit from $1 to $100 with us and see what becomes of it at 3 per cent. More to tell if you ask here.

Merchants' & Mechanics' Savings Bank.
W. S. JEFFRIS, President. Wm. BLADON, Cashier
Janesville, Wisconsin.

Automatic Loom.
Two Burnley (England) operators have devised a new type of automatic loom, which embodies all the features existing in the Lancashire loom, and by the introduction of a hopper containing web-in steel tubes and some simple mechanism on the lay an automatic loom is produced. When the web thread breaks the web fork sets in motion and a mechanism which forces the old web out of the shuttle at the top, and a full tube immediately takes its place.

There is a Way Out.
Many men say we know what to do if we were at liberty. When one gets cornered the one thing not to allow is discouragement. It is useless, harmful and unnecessary. It is purely physical, and thoughtfulness with will power prevents it. Melancholy is death to good work. It can, with few exceptions, be rested, forced, exercised or doctored off.—Earl M. Pratt.

Cause of Church Drawings.
At an archbishops conference at Newcastle-under-Lyme, England, Dr. S. Hutton sought to find a physiological reason for people sleeping in church. Although often attributed to other causes he believed that both the slumbering habit and the want of attention sometimes shown by members of the congregation to the preacher's discourse were due to the poisoned atmosphere inhaled.

Too Late to Classify
WANTED—Compotent girl for general house work; wages $5. Apply to Mrs. David Holmes, 101 Court St.
WANTED A LOAN—Want to borrow $200 for five years at six per cent. City property. Apply at Gazette office.

Orchard & Co.
DRY GOODS, CLOAKS, MILLINERY

Commencing August 1st, We Announce Our Annual August Clearing Sale

Below we quote Some Special Items:
Tailor-Made Suits at.....$7.50

A Special Offering of Fifty.
We have selected from our stock of suits a number that have been priced at $10, $13.50, $15 and $18 and we give you a selection at $7.50. The suits are black and the desirable colors and in all sizes. Other suits above and below the price—and all at special prices during this sale.

Skirt Special
$3.75 for $6 and $7 dress and walking skirts in cheviot and fancy mixture are new fall samples.

White Laton Waists
Special lots at 89c, $1.19 and $1.39.

China Silk Waists
Special lots at $2, $2.50 and $3.

Women's Neckwear
We have marked for clearing special lots of wash neckwear at 10, 15, 19 and 39c.

MILLINERY
Clearing prices on all the remaining summer stock. Specials: Children's muslin hats, 25c. White duck caps, with or without visor, 19c. Closing out the balance of the shirt waist hats at $1.

Orchard & Co.
DRY GOODS, CLOAKS, MILLINERY

FARM FOR SALE.
100 acres in a high state of cultivation; all under the plow; only 6 acres of wood; with good buildings—barn 80 feet long, room to stable 20 feet of cattle and horses; good house in good shape; four house and acreage and well fenced. To be sold on reasonable terms. Located 5 miles from Janesville on the Milwaukee road. For further information address: THOMAS WELCH, Janesville, Wis. R. R. 1

The First National Bank OF
Janesville, Wisconsin
Capital & Surplus $200,000

Directors
S. B. SMITH, Pres., L. B. CARL, Vice-Pres., JOHN G. REEDER, Cashier,
A. P. LOVJOY, G. H. RUMMEL,
H. RICHARDSON, T. O. HOWE
A Strictly Commercial Business Transacted.

Pure Ice Cream
25c per quart
delivered to any part of city

FROZLY BROS.,
ON THE BRIDGE.

A Few Electric Domestic Conveniences

Electric Laundry Irons.
Electric Cooking Devices.
Electric Heating Pads --
Replaces hot water bottles.
Curling Iron Heaters.
Electric Combs for drying damp hair.
Fans to keep the heat and flies out.
Sewing Machine Motors --
Do twice the work with half the effort.
Drop in and let us explain these things.

JANESVILLE CONTRACTING CO.
On The Bridge

Where False Hair Comes From.
Most of the black hair used in wigs and "switches" comes from the convents of Italy and Spain, while the fair and red hair comes mainly from the heads of Russian, Swedish, German and Danish peasant girls.

OLD FOGY TAKEN TO TASK AGAIN

MR. BROWN SENDS COMMUNICATION ON AUTOBOMBING.

THINKS CRITICISM IS UNJUST

Asks Questions of the Writer of Saturday's Letter—States Several Facts.

To the Editor: In the interest of that few of our citizens who happen to be automobilists, I would like to see a humble way to answer a few of "Old Fogy's" remarks in his last letter, which seem to be a little unjust. He seems to have something of a grudge against Miss Anderson, as she alone is mentioned personally, and several times at that. I am only a "kid" and drive faster and more carelessly than she, but I have caused only two runaways in running in the neighborhood of eight thousand miles. Many horses have waited, and two-stepped, and done the highland fling but I think that only twice have the drivers lost control of them. Does this not show that she simply has had bad luck? And can you blame her for that? I have made trips that were rendered quite unpleasant by trouble with scared horses and more scared drivers, and then would run for a week or so without a bit of friction.

"Old Fogy" says, also, "Persons walking across streets often have to hurry to avoid being run down." Did he ever have to hurry to avoid being run down by a horse "managed" by one of these careless young delivery boys, or even ladies, who drive on the left side, and almost invariably turn around in the business district without looking where they are going?

He admits, "I think they are all controlled and their drivers are watchful not to frighten horses and stop when they see animals frightened." What more can he ask? And yet he complains about their speed and suggests that restrictions be placed on it, because of the accidents. There is already an ordinance, and our speed is limited to twelve miles an hour, but this does no good, and can do no good for the runaways. There is no connection. During over two years of experience, I believe I have never even scared a horse while going at a speed greater than twelve miles an hour. There has been no accident that I know of, in Janesville, caused through "scorching." If he can find record of one, I would like to know of it. And, besides, if he can find account of a single accident, caused directly, anywhere, by a light car such as are all in this city, except, perhaps, Mr. Parker's, I will confess myself beaten.

When there are any big, high-powered, dangerous cars in Janesville it will be time to restrict us further, for as soon as we are oppressed we will retaliate. With a speed limit of six miles an hour there would be all probability no many, more runaways than there are now, and the American Motor league would stand back of us in any just controversy. As it is, I think we all appreciate the kindness of the council in allowing us a reasonable speed, and thank them for it.

CURRENT NEWS NOTES

Hot Amateur Game: A ten inning game was played yesterday between the teams of the first and fourth wards resulting in a victory for the latter by a score of 21 to 20.

Growing Nicely: The banana plant at the lower end of the courthouse park is growing nicely and the youngsters of the neighborhood are anxiously awaiting the arrival of the fruit.

Squirrel Boxes: One daring squirrel actually peeped inside one of the four squirrel boxes in the courthouse park recently, but was not brave enough to try and crawl inside and investigate.

Isaac Walltons: Each evening on the lower bridge there are a dozen to fifteen daring fishermen. Catfish and a few bass are caught, but one small boy tearfully announced last night: "Ain't nothing but minnows here and they don't bite."

Sinking Slowly: The Court street bridge is slowly but surely becoming weaker and weaker and part of it may fall some day before the work of destruction for the new begins.

Boy After Dog License: This morning at seven o'clock a young lad about ten years of age was stationed at the door of the city hall, with a large end of gum stuck in his face and chewing for all he was worth, and holding in his hand a new $1.00 bill, accosted one of the gentlemen about the building in the following language: "Say Cattle where do you get the dog tags?"

Declared Off: The game which was to have been played on Dinker hill yesterday between the second ward team and Leyden for the southern Wisconsin amateur championship, was declared off Saturday.

Third Ward Boys Enter a House: Saturday afternoon, two brothers, aged five and seven years, were discovered by neighbors in the third ward in the cellar of another neighbor. They were scared away without taking much booty. The police took the boys in hand and gave them a severe scolding.

"Pike" Committee Report: The committee on "The Pike" will make their reports at the meeting to be held at the golf clubhouse tomorrow evening.

THE WEATHER

Temperature last 24 hours taken from U. S. registered thermometer at Holmstreet's drugstore: highest, 78 above; lowest, 50; ther at 7 a. m., 61; at 3 p. m., 75; wind, north; pleasant.

Spying on Prisoners Condemned. To listen to the conversation of two suspected housebreakers, the Llandudno (Wales) police placed an officer under the bed in the cell where the men were confined—a proceeding which Mr. Justice Williams condemned at the trial of the men.

BAND CONCERT TUESDAY EVENING

Delightful Program of Eight Numbers To Be Given in Court House Park.

Tomorrow evening the Imperial band will give another of their delightful concerts in the courthouse park. When these concerts are given the park is filled with people who are able to sit on the grass and enjoy the music, and the music itself seems sweeter under the trees than on a business square. The following program will be rendered:

March—"The Conductor".....Seaton
Overture—"La Cail".....Thomas
Intermezzo—"Cupid's Garden".....
Waltz—"Romantique".....Engene
Song—"Violets".....Tobahn
Baritone Solo, H. D. Orden
Two-Step—"Princess Pocahontas".....
Selection—"King Dodo".....Hoyt
March—"Uncle, Sammy".....Holzmann

FACTORY DAMAGED

One portion of the new Hohenedel cannery factory at Rochelle, Ill., was completely demolished last week by a North-Western switch-engine, the accident occurring in a manner similar to the one that happened while the Janesville factory was in the process of construction. The loss will aggregate several thousands of dollars and the damage may not be repaired in time for the handling of this year's crop of corn and cucumbers. In that event extra work will be thrown upon the local factory.

FUTURE EVENTS

Barnum & Bailey's circus at Spring Brook, Thursday, August 4.

LODGE MEETINGS TONIGHT

Rock River Tent No. 51, Knights of the Macabees, at East Side Odd Fellows hall.
Rock River Hive No. 71, Ladies of the Macabees, at East Side Odd Fellows hall.
Janesville Assembly of Equitable Fraternity, No. 171, meets at Calcedonian hall.
Journeyman Barbers' union at Assembly hall.
Painters, Paperhangers, & Decorators' union at Assembly hall.
Hatters' union at Assembly hall.

BRIEF BITS OF LOCAL NEWS

Barbians In Shoes. "Talk to Lowell," 2 Wyandotte W. P., 25c. Nash.
Grand opening Wednesday afternoon and evening. Music and lunch. J. Helmer, 54 W. Milwaukee street.
Beef liver and tongue. Nash.
For finest meats "Talk to Lowell." Come now, today, for rare grocery bargains at the Van Kirk closing out sale.
The best olive oil imported. Nash.
Our removal sale on ladies' tailor-made suits, shirt waist suits, make purchasers of people who had no idea of buying. T. P. Burns.
Frank and plate meat. 5c. Nash.
Every housekeeper who does not put in store enough groceries to last while the Van Kirk closing out sale is in progress will be the loser.
Get your meat order in early. Nash.
Peanut butter. Nash.
Investigate the offerings we are making in ladies' and children's hosiery at our removal sale. T. P. Burns.
Hamburg steak. 10c. Nash.
Veal loaf. 12c. Nash.
The necessities of everyday life can be bought at about your own price. Van Kirk closing out sale.
Prince roast of beef at Herman Kath's place this evening.
There are loads of good things at way down prices at the Van Kirk closing out sale.
Corner Stone the best patent flour on earth. $1.20. Nash.
We are offering such bargains at our removal, in ladies' and gents' summer under wear, that it will pay you to lay in a supply for another season. T. P. Burns.
Malt coffee demonstration. Nash.
How to make money is answered in the grocery bargains at Van Kirk's closing out sale.
The ladies of the St. John's church will give an ice cream social on the church lawn, Wednesday evening.
A very pretty line of shirt waist sets, belt buckles and golf ball pins in silver are shown at F. C. Cook & Co.'s for the ladies' toilet, during August.

Heath and strength giving—Malt coffee: come and try it, Nash.
The Chicago & North-Western railroad will run an excursion to Fort Sheridan and Zion City, Wednesday, August 10. Fare for the round trip, $1.50. Train leaves Janesville at 7:40 a. m., and returning arrives here at 7:50 p. m.
We are demonstrating Knapp Malt coffee: come and see it, Nash.
The Maynard shoe stock must be closed out and if you need any shoes now is the time to buy them. Golden Eagle Clothing house.
Judge and Mrs. C. L. Fifield spent Sunday at Lake Kegonsa the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Sweeney.
Specialties.
Finest olive oil imported.
Best 50c tea on earth.
Best 25c coffee on earth.
Corner Stone flour. NASIE.

The Congregational church and Sunday school picnic will be held tomorrow at Buchholz park and boats will leave the dock on Fourth avenue at 10:00 in the morning and 2:00 and 5:00 in the afternoon.
Boats leave the dock at 10:00 a. m., 2:00 and 5:00 p. m. tomorrow for the Congregational church and Sunday school picnic at Buchholz park.
The Congregational church and Sunday school picnic will be held tomorrow at Buchholz park and boats will leave the dock on Fourth avenue at 10:00 in the morning and 2:00 and 5:00 in the afternoon.

Boats leave the dock at 10:00 a. m., 2:00 and 5:00 p. m. tomorrow for the Congregational church and Sunday school picnic at Buchholz park.
Boats leave the dock at 10:00 a. m., 2:00 and 5:00 p. m. tomorrow for the Congregational church and Sunday school picnic at Buchholz park.
Boats leave the dock at 10:00 a. m., 2:00 and 5:00 p. m. tomorrow for the Congregational church and Sunday school picnic at Buchholz park.

Boats leave the dock at 10:00 a. m., 2:00 and 5:00 p. m. tomorrow for the Congregational church and Sunday school picnic at Buchholz park.
Boats leave the dock at 10:00 a. m., 2:00 and 5:00 p. m. tomorrow for the Congregational church and Sunday school picnic at Buchholz park.
Boats leave the dock at 10:00 a. m., 2:00 and 5:00 p. m. tomorrow for the Congregational church and Sunday school picnic at Buchholz park.

RESENTS BEING A SCAPE-GOAT

JOSEPH FLINT SEEKS REDRESS FROM ALLEGED DETRACTORS

WHO ACCUSED HIM OF THEFT

Of $600 Afterwards Alleged To Have Been Found on Premises of Brother-in-Law of Inman's.

Some weeks ago $600 dollars in money was taken from a bureau drawer in the home of William, and Charles Inman of the town of Plymouth. Suspicion attached to a man by the name of Joseph Flint who had been at work shingling the roof of the house and one of the Inmans came to Janesville to swear out a warrant for his arrest. District attorney Jackson did not think there was sufficient evidence to hold the man and advised that a careful investigation be made.

Cash in a Tin Can
Subsequently it is alleged to have developed that a brother-in-law, Charles Cohen by name, had taken the money and hidden it in a tin can up among the rafters of his home about a mile distant. But in the meantime the Inmans are alleged to have openly charged Flint with the theft and to have made statements to the same effect to neighbors.

Flint Seeks Redress
Mr. Flint is a man with a family to support and claims that he has been unable to obtain work since he was charged with being a thief. He seeks redress from his former employers and has retained Fathers, Jeffris & Mount to present his case to the court. Summons have been served on the Inmans to appear in circuit court within twenty days and make preparation to defend themselves in a suit for defamation of character which the plaintiff proposes to commence.

SMALL FIRE ON NORTH HICKORY ST

Papers Set Fire to Siding of House and Dresser at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Links.

This afternoon at 1:15 o'clock an alarm of fire was pulled in from box 261, corner of North Hickory and Walker streets, calling the department to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Links, where in some manner papers and a dresser had caught fire and set fire to the siding of the house and the wall. The amount of damage will not exceed $5. The fire was soon put out after the arrival of the department without the use of water. At 1:20 a still alarm was sounded at the west side station calling the fire patrol to the baseball park where the grass and fence had caught fire, this was soon extinguished by the fire police upon their arrival. Chief Klein while responding to the Hickory street fire was cornered at the People's drugstore, and it was either run into the wagon with the men on and hurt someone or the telephone pole, so the chief preferred the telephone pole of his buggy and after doing a few acrobatic stunts, in mid air he again landed in the seat and pursued the wagons to the scene of the fire, arriving among the first at the box.

"PROF" MCARTIN HIS OWN ATTORNEY

Carpet Sweeper Repairer Appears for Himself in Assault and Battery Case Today.

Upon the refusal of the court to appoint an attorney for him "Prof." W. J. McMartin of Buffalo, mixer of herbs, gums, and barks, and member of the Carpet Sweeper Repairing Co. of Grand Rapids, Mich., conducted his own defense this afternoon in the action brought against him for assault and battery by Fred Trapke, husband of Martha Trapke. Mrs. Trapke testified that McMartin addressed her on the street while she was waiting for her husband on the evening of July 26 and seized her by the right arm when she tried to get away from him. She exhibited some harsh looking black and blue spots on the arm in corroboration of her testimony. McMartin cross-examined her and took the stand himself, admitting that he talked with the woman and affirming that she seemed pleased with his company until her husband appeared on the scene. The case is on trial as we go to press. The prosecution is being conducted by Fred Hurpee.

JANESVILLE IS STILL UNBEATEN

Chicagoans Were Defeated Handily at Yost's Park Yesterday—Red Sox Lost to Beloit.

At Yost's park yesterday afternoon the Janesville nine defeated the Lyon & Leary team of Chicago by the score of 13 to 4. Palmer pitched for the locals and "Shorty" Ellsworth held down the box for the visitors. The contest was witnessed by a large crowd. At Maroon park the Red Sox went down to defeat before the Beloit Eagles, the final score being 5 to 3. Swanson and Byrnes were the battery for the visitors and Hoeschke and Brownson of Beloit in the same capacity for the Red Sox. The game was a good one and was witnessed by a good sized crowd of spectators.

Miss Kate Boos accompanied by her nieces, the Misses Myrtle and Rose Boos, have returned from a visit with relatives and friends at Jefferson.

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY TODAY

Captain and Mrs. E. G. Harlow Married Fifty Years Ago This Morning at Trinity Church.

Fifty years ago this morning Captain and Mrs. E. G. Harlow were united in marriage by Father Ruger, the founder and first priest of Trinity church, of this city. Today at the Harlow residence, 208 Ravine street, a happy family reunion is being held, all the children of the captain and his estimable wife being present to commemorate the occasion. During the day friends have called to offer their congratulations. Those who are present at this memorable occasion are J. C. Harlow and family, E. H. Harlow, master mechanic of the Santa Fe railway, stationed at San Francisco, was expected but was delayed and had not arrived at noon; Mrs. Frank Young of Delavan; Mrs. Frank Frost of Three Rivers, Mich.; Mrs. Harlow was a Miss Fannie C. Howe of Sackett Harbor, New York, and was visiting in Janesville at the time of her marriage to Mr. Harlow. Mrs. Harlow is a direct descendant of Lord Admiral Howe of the English navy of the Revolutionary period. After a short wedding trip in the east Captain and Mrs. Harlow returned to Janesville and have made this city their home continuously since. Captain Harlow enlisted in the Twelfth Wisconsin artillery and served during the War of the Rebellion for three years. Mr. Harlow was a trusted employee of the North-Western road for thirty-three years, acting as foreman in the mechanical department of that road, and is now on their retired list. The many friends of Captain and Mrs. Harlow unite in congratulations on this their golden anniversary.

Fifty years ago, the Gazette, then a morning paper, published the following notice of Mr. Harlow's wedding:

Married
At Trinity church in this city, this Tuesday morning, by Rev. Thomas J. Ruger, Edward G. Harlow with Fannie C. Howe, both of Sackett Harbor, New York.

LOOK OUT FOR THE RED WAGON

Dog Catcher Philip Marskie Will Make His First Round-Up Next Week Tuesday.

Philip Marskie, official dog catcher of Janesville, was "discovered" this morning at work on circus wagon No. 47 which served as a den for the wild foxes in the great Nonesuch Bros' parade. The wagon is painted in a brilliant carmine and will be trimmed in bright yellow. At an early hour next week Tuesday morning Mr. Marskie will take his initial whirl through the city, picking up all canines not wearing the badge of freedom. "My bonds have been filed with the city clerk but must be approved by the city council at its meeting next Monday before I am empowered to act," said the new official in reply to a question regarding the delay in getting down to business. "I have not yet decided where the pound will be located but I think it will have been selected before next week. Tell 'em to look out for the red wagon."

DREAD ASSASSIN PURELY MYTHICAL

C. Montanye Had a Gift-Edged Yarn to Spin Regarding Several Bad Cuts Last Night.

C. Montanye who resides at No. 1 North street had a hilarious time up river yesterday in company with others and returning to his home about nine o'clock and finding his parents gone and the doors locked, strove to effect an entrance by breaking in one of the windows. In so doing he cut his left arm in three places, one of the wounds being a very deep one. He hurried to Baker's drugstore, minus hat and coat and while Fred Baker dressed the wounds told a thrilling story of being attacked, robbed and stabbed by assassins, and fighting for his life. He carefully avoided the police, however, as they had been looking for him earlier in the evening.

PROF. DALAND OF MILTON COLLEGE AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Many Attended the Morning Services at the Baptist Church Sunday and Listened to a Good Sermon. Sunday at the morning services of the Baptist church Prof. Daland of Milton college delivered an excellent sermon on "Charity," to the members of the congregation. Prof. Daland is an able and talented lecturer and those who heard him yesterday speak in the highest terms of his sermon. A return engagement for next Sunday is now being negotiated and it is to be hoped that his services may be secured.

TO ENLARGE STORE

Two Rooms to Be Thrown Into One for Golden Eagle.
The transaction by which the Golden Eagle Clothing house becomes owner of the Maynard Shoe Co. stock and also lessee of the store of the Maynard Co., was made to enlarge that progressive store's quarters. The outfit partition separating the two store rooms is to be removed, thus throwing it into one large store.

Notice to Contractors

Sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned city clerk of the city of Janesville, Wisconsin, until August 5th, 1904, eight o'clock p. m., for the construction of a fire station, according to plans and specifications for the same now on file in the office of the city clerk.
The council reserves the right to reject any and all bids.
A. E. BADGER,
City Clerk.

NEWS OF A PERSONAL NATURE

H. J. Kessler spent Sunday with relatives and friends in Milwaukee. Miss Carrie Dermody of Muscatine, Iowa, Miss Florence Cody of Madison, and Miss Kate Dermody and Gertrude Airls of this city are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Messerkech at Beloit for a few days.
James Connors has returned from a two week's trip to the Rosebud. Miss Josephine McGillan of Chicago who has been spending last week with her sister, Mrs. Henry Donnelly, returned to her home Saturday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Webster have returned from a ten days' trip in northern Michigan.
Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Murdoch spent Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Childs at Hanover.

Miss M. Prichard is the guest of Major and Mrs. McNaught at Madison.
H. M. Child of Edgerton was in the city today on business.

Miss Carrie Swingle of Shopshire returned home yesterday after a week's visit with friends in Janesville.

Miss Edith Kester is visiting friends and relatives in Beloit.
W. B. Woolford of Green Bay is visiting at the home of Hugh McCaffrey, 11 Chatham street.

Rhody Kneff of Freeport was a Janesville visitor yesterday.
Mrs. I. T. Matthews left this morning to spend the day in Chicago.
Frank O. Holt has been visiting for the last few days at Johnsons Creek.
Mr. A. C. Larson and family left today for a two weeks' outing at Ripley lake.

A. W. Baumann was registered at a Milwaukee hotel Saturday.
Mrs. J. F. Hutchinson and daughter, Allen, returned Saturday evening from a six weeks' visit at Chicago. Master Harold Childs accompanied them.

Mrs. Anna Shark and Miss May Shark of Denver, Col., and Mrs. L. Roberts of Beloit have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Carrie Griswold, Oak Lawn.

John A. Harlow, who went to California after his graduation from the high school a year ago, is expected home. Mr. Harlow has taken in all the points of interest in San Francisco and has had practical experience in railroad work, having been employed in the mechanical department of the Santa Fe road for some months.
W. W. Watt spent Sunday in Rockford.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Carpenter spent Sunday at Lake Koshong.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Garbutt have returned from a trip to New York.

Mr. Frank Frost of Three Rivers, Michigan, is visiting her parents, Captain and Mrs. E. G. Harlow.

Charles Levy left for Chicago Sunday after transacting business in the city for the past week.

Carl F. Litz and E. W. Litz left Sunday morning for a week's visit at the St. Louis exposition.

Henry Baldwin is visiting friends and relatives at LeMars, Iowa, this week.

Rev. William F. Brown of Beloit was a caller in the city this morning.
Miss Flora Rider returned this morning from a two weeks' outing at Lake Monona.

J. F. Sweeney spent Sunday with his family at Lake Kegonsa.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Wise came down from Lake Kegonsa this morning and are visiting friends and relatives in the city.

R. B. Harper transacted business in Footville today.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Reid leave tomorrow for a week's trip to the Yellowstone park.

Sol Cooper of Fort Atkinson is assisting in the shoe sale of the Maynard shoe stock of the Golden Eagle Clothing house.

E. J. Smith, who has been ill the past week, is again able to be about.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter L. Myers were Rockford visitors Saturday.

The Misses Anna and Annis Squires of Green, Ia., returned to their home this morning after spending the week in the city the guest of their friend, Miss Clara Pond.

Mrs. E. J. Quirk of No. 1 Eastern avenue cut her thumb seriously and is laid up with blood poison.

Mrs. Cleveland and Miss Alma Law are visiting friends and relatives in Edgerton.

W. W. Frick returned Saturday evening from the Saengerbund.

Professor Kling is ill at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Winston, at 121 Milton avenue.

Mrs. Amos Prichard is spending a few days visiting at the home of Maj. and Mrs. J. H. McNaught of Madison.

Miss Winifred Neelen is the guest of Madison friends this week.

Mrs. Hurd and niece, Mrs. Edith Wikom on Milton avenue, were over Sunday visitors at the Delavan lake assembly.

Miss Mabel Glenn has returned from a seven weeks' visit at St. Louis, Chicago and Milwaukee. She was accompanied from Chicago by her friend, Miss Dorothy Simonson of New York city, who has been spending the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Glenn.

Mr. George Corson is still very ill at his home on Terrace street.

Mr. Gestler was an over Sunday visitor at his father-in-law's, Mr. Foster of St. Mary's avenue.

Miss Sybil Nash is home from Chicago for a few days.

Mrs. Behrend and children of Chicago are visiting Mrs. Behrend's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nash, 252 West Bluff street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Yates and daughter, Miss Bertha, left this morning for a two weeks' outing at Fish Creek.

E. W. LOWELL HAS SOLD INTERESTS

AFTER THIRTY YEARS IN BUSINESS IN JANESVILLE.

W. A. LEONARD OF CHICAGO, Buys Mr. Lowell's Interest in the Hardware Company This Afternoon.

After thirty years in business in Janesville, Mr. E. W. Lowell today retired from active business, selling his interest in the Lowell Hardware company to William A. Leonard of Chicago. The transfer was made this afternoon in the office of George Sutherland, attorney for Mr. Lowell. As part payment for his stock in the company Mr. Lowell receives the Lowell apartment flat at 5717-5719 Madison avenue, Chicago.

Samuel Company
Mr. Leonard said this afternoon that the employees and officers of the Lowell Hardware company would remain the same as they are at present, except Mr. Lowell who will retire from active business. The same style of business as is at present being conducted by the company will be continued, although several new branches may be added in time.

Strange Coincidence
It is a strange feature of the transfer that Mr. Lowell takes in part payment for his interest in the Lowell company a row of apartment houses which are named Lowell. Mr. Leonard explains this by saying the flats were named for his son, whose name is Lowell. The Lowell company is a stock concern with a fifty thousand dollar capitalization.

Thrashing Coal
Go to Collier Bros. for all kinds of thrashing coal. Hocking Valley, $5.60; Indiana Block, $5; Lincoln Lump, $5 a ton. Yards on North Bluff, one block from Milwaukee St.

Rev. K. C. Denison has postponed his vacation a week and will leave next Monday for New York, Boston and other places of interest.

FAIR STORE.
We have a special sale of Wide Ribbons, 2 1/2 in. Wide, all fancy colors, suitable for Neck Ribbons, at 7c yard.

Also Children's Hair Ribbons at 5 & 7c in Red, Blue, Pink and Old Rose. Summer Corsets at 25 to 45c.

Ladies' Colored and White Lisle Thread and Silk Summer Gloves, price cut to 25c, 40c, and 45c.

Our summer dress stock is very low and in order to close it all out we will reduce prices that will make it go.

Ladies' Summer Gauze Underwear at 10c, 12c, 15c, 20c, & 25c.

Umbrella Sale at 45c, 85c, $1 & $1.10.

Men's Underwear at 50c Suit in Balbriggan and Cotton.

FAIR STORE

Piano Tuning.
Careful and satisfactory work done. No promises made that are not fulfilled. Work done in this city that speaks for itself.

S. E. EGDTVET
Janesville Music Co.
New Phone 786.

JUST RECEIVED
40 Baskets Large Domestic Blueberries

These are the best of the season. Every basket guaranteed.  Order now.

$1.15 Per Basket.
Every basket guaranteed to hold from 11 to 13 quarts.

P. Rudolph & Sons
Cor. Center & Western Ave.

COAL
Now is the time to fill your bin with our choice SCRANTON COAL at summer prices.

J. F. SPOON & CO.
City office, corner River and Milwaukee Sts. Yard office, North River St. New Phone 655, Old Phone 536

Golden Palace Flour, $1.30 Sack

The Best Flour Made.
E. R. WINSLOW
20 North Main.
New Phone 647. Old Phone 3321.

Sails or Sales--
It's all the same. Merit and quality will win, and you find both in our coal. There is an economy in buying now, and it would make your heart glad to have your coal in and paid for, when the "chilly" feeling creeps over you.

Janesville Coal Co.,
Phone 89. Office, Riverside Laundry

The Substitute

By WILL N. HARBEN,

Author of "Abner Daniel," "The Land of the Chandling
Sun," "The North Walk
Mystery," Etc.

Copyright, 1903, by HARPER & BROTHERS

"Well, I reckon he will," said Mrs. Hilmyer. "I've changed my account to him from Waters & Co. An' why shouldn't I? Do you reckon I'm not goin' to encourage rail enterprise? Jest the minute he told me he was a-goin' to run a free delivery wagon to take orders an' deliver goods twice a day I put my name down. The idea o' them old fogies waitin' for young Bob Hanks to start a free delivery! Why, the minute I told Mrs. Dugan about it she might nigh had a spasm, she was so glad. I need her ag'in jest before supper. She'd been down an' ordered a whole raft o' stuff she didn't need jest to see 'em come up like they do in cities. She's been tramping from one end o' town to t'other tellin' folks they won't have to make a step either way to get what they want for the table. Bob's boy 'll call the first thing in the mornin' an' write down what's wanted, an' up the stuff comes. He's got some little-uns you seed them little looks he's givin' away for a body 's write orders in? Oh, you have! Well, it's a powerful good idea. No body kin dispute their account when it's writ in their own handwritin'. Mr. Hanks, as shure as yore a-settin' there, Bob's goin' to succeed."

Hanks looked at the Mrs. Hilmyer, usually a dead thing, held a twinkle, or was it only the reflection of the flames in the chimney? "I sorter like his start," he admitted. "I was always afraid o' the influence o' that triffin' set o' boys bein' runnin' with, but today Bill Bogles—the worst o' the lot—drawed up a chair in front o' the door w'ar Sanford used to set an' whittled an' started to take a seat, but, bless you, Bob called 'im to law—told 'im he wasn't agoin' to have his friends settin' round the front o' the store that a-way—said it didn't look businesslike, an' he was goin' to start right an' sorter how to the line. Then, ag'in, one o' the clerks that Sanford used to let do purty much as he liked was startin' to light a cigar behind the show case, an' Bob yanked 'im up too. 'Ain't have no smokin' in the house, 'Jim,' he said politely. 'We sell fire-crackers an' gunpowder, an' have to be careful. Besides, it don't look right durin' business hours, an' we was to catch fire an' burn out we'd want to collect our insurance without bein' accused o' carelessness.'"

"Yes," Hilmyer said, his amused glance on the face of his wife, "I believe Bob's goin' to do all right. My dandy used to think I was dead lazy because I didn't like to chop sprouts in the middle o' August as well as I did to play ball twice as hard, but the sprouts was his fun an' the ball game mine. This here's Bob's fun, an' the only way to amount to a hill o' beans is to enjoy what you're at. You think you're a model business man, Hanks, but there's as much fun at the job you have as playin' poker with a full hand. You'd go to sleep sellin' supplies on time for anybody but yourself, but you're wide awake as it is. The truth is, you never tried to find out what Bob's talent is."

Hanks drew himself up. He had not smiled during his visit, and he rarely made concessions. He did both now rather sheepishly.

"Well, I've come over to tell you that I'm goin' to take up that note," he said. "What note is that?"

"Why, the one Bob give you. I reckon I'm able to stand the—the risk as well as you are."

"Well," and Hilmyer smiled again at his wife, "I think you've got a lot o' gall to come tell me a thing like that. When did I ever ask you to give up a good loan to me?"

"I think so myself," joined in Mrs. Hilmyer, who had caught her husband's drift. "Why, Mr. Hilmyer was jest sayin' 'fother day that it was mighty nigh impossible to put money out whar it ud be safe an' draw any sort o' interest, an' Bob's got a good payin' cash business."

Hanks shrugged his shoulders. His small smile had vanished; he looked shrewd.

"I reckon I'll have to give Bob the money, then, an' tell 'im to pay it off. I don't want 'im to be ov'in' anybody."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin bet I ain't a-goin' to transfer any note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

"An' that's nothin' more'n fair," said Mrs. Hilmyer as Hanks rose and started to leave.

The next morning at the warehouse Hanks seemed somewhat preoccupied. Presently in a hall in business and conversation he turned to Hilmyer. "I-I mentioned that note to Bob this mornin' at breakfast, an' what you reckon he said? Huh?"

"How do I know?" replied the merchant.

Hanks opened the door of the stove, a cigar in his hand, and began to look for a coal of fire. "It sorter flustered 'im, but he finally said that he believed he'd rather not take my offer; that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. What do you think o' that?"

Hilmyer shook his head, a pleased expression on his face. He made no reply, but Kenner spoke up. "The boy don't intend to ax you no odds, Lib," he said, "an' I glory in his spunk."

well kept lawn, but it was equipped throughout with the old furniture the Cranstons had brought from Virginia. There were rare pieces of solid mahogany in the big parlor, a piano which was a relic of the days of Washington, and sofas and chairs quite as ancient in appearance. On the white plastered walls hung family portraits in massive gilt frames.

It was one Sunday night about the middle of November. Lydia had retired to her room and the major was reading a newspaper in the lamplight before a cheerful fire in the sitting room when Mrs. Cranstons came in from the parlor.

"Well, you may be satisfied, Major Cranstons," she said, "but I'm not."

"Oh, you are not! What's wrong now?" He put his paper down and looked up at her inquiringly.

"Well, I don't like the way Lydia is doing at all," replied the lady.

"What's she done now?" The major spoke with just a little irritation, for he was interested in the political news he had been reading.

"She hasn't done anything—that's the trouble," answered Mrs. Cranstons. "If she only would do and be like she was in Richmond I wouldn't care, but she's as different as can be."

"Why, I'm sure the child seems well enough to me," grumbled the major.

"Well enough? She's the picture of health. But are you blind? Can't you see an inch before your nose? Don't you remember how she cried when we moved away from Richmond, and all the visits she promised Kitty Cosby and the other girls back there? Then you remember how she moped about the first month down here, and the fun she made of this place and the people. But now look at her. She's tickled to death over everything here. What do you think it means, sir?"

"Oh, she was sick and tired of that ally social set up there," said the major, "and this simple, healthy life here in the mountains agrees with her, as it has with me and you. I never knew what a good appetite or a pleasant night's sleep was till I—"

"Oh, do dry up," Mrs. Cranstons sat down by him. "You are as blind as a bat."

"Yes," Hilmyer said, his amused glance on the face of his wife, "I believe Bob's goin' to do all right. My dandy used to think I was dead lazy because I didn't like to chop sprouts in the middle o' August as well as I did to play ball twice as hard, but the sprouts was his fun an' the ball game mine. This here's Bob's fun, an' the only way to amount to a hill o' beans is to enjoy what you're at. You think you're a model business man, Hanks, but there's as much fun at the job you have as playin' poker with a full hand. You'd go to sleep sellin' supplies on time for anybody but yourself, but you're wide awake as it is. The truth is, you never tried to find out what Bob's talent is."

Hanks drew himself up. He had not smiled during his visit, and he rarely made concessions. He did both now rather sheepishly.

"Well, I've come over to tell you that I'm goin' to take up that note," he said. "What note is that?"

"Why, the one Bob give you. I reckon I'm able to stand the—the risk as well as you are."

"Well," and Hilmyer smiled again at his wife, "I think you've got a lot o' gall to come tell me a thing like that. When did I ever ask you to give up a good loan to me?"

"I think so myself," joined in Mrs. Hilmyer, who had caught her husband's drift. "Why, Mr. Hilmyer was jest sayin' 'fother day that it was mighty nigh impossible to put money out whar it ud be safe an' draw any sort o' interest, an' Bob's got a good payin' cash business."

Hanks shrugged his shoulders. His small smile had vanished; he looked shrewd.

"I reckon I'll have to give Bob the money, then, an' tell 'im to pay it off. I don't want 'im to be ov'in' anybody."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin bet I ain't a-goin' to transfer any note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

"An' that's nothin' more'n fair," said Mrs. Hilmyer as Hanks rose and started to leave.

The next morning at the warehouse Hanks seemed somewhat preoccupied. Presently in a hall in business and conversation he turned to Hilmyer. "I-I mentioned that note to Bob this mornin' at breakfast, an' what you reckon he said? Huh?"

"How do I know?" replied the merchant.

Hanks opened the door of the stove, a cigar in his hand, and began to look for a coal of fire. "It sorter flustered 'im, but he finally said that he believed he'd rather not take my offer; that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. What do you think o' that?"

Hilmyer shook his head, a pleased expression on his face. He made no reply, but Kenner spoke up. "The boy don't intend to ax you no odds, Lib," he said, "an' I glory in his spunk."

"Well, I've come over to tell you that I'm goin' to take up that note," he said. "What note is that?"

"Why, the one Bob give you. I reckon I'm able to stand the—the risk as well as you are."

"Well," and Hilmyer smiled again at his wife, "I think you've got a lot o' gall to come tell me a thing like that. When did I ever ask you to give up a good loan to me?"

"I think so myself," joined in Mrs. Hilmyer, who had caught her husband's drift. "Why, Mr. Hilmyer was jest sayin' 'fother day that it was mighty nigh impossible to put money out whar it ud be safe an' draw any sort o' interest, an' Bob's got a good payin' cash business."

Hanks shrugged his shoulders. His small smile had vanished; he looked shrewd.

"I reckon I'll have to give Bob the money, then, an' tell 'im to pay it off. I don't want 'im to be ov'in' anybody."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin bet I ain't a-goin' to transfer any note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

"An' that's nothin' more'n fair," said Mrs. Hilmyer as Hanks rose and started to leave.

The next morning at the warehouse Hanks seemed somewhat preoccupied. Presently in a hall in business and conversation he turned to Hilmyer. "I-I mentioned that note to Bob this mornin' at breakfast, an' what you reckon he said? Huh?"

"How do I know?" replied the merchant.

Hanks opened the door of the stove, a cigar in his hand, and began to look for a coal of fire. "It sorter flustered 'im, but he finally said that he believed he'd rather not take my offer; that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. What do you think o' that?"

Hilmyer shook his head, a pleased expression on his face. He made no reply, but Kenner spoke up. "The boy don't intend to ax you no odds, Lib," he said, "an' I glory in his spunk."

"Well, I've come over to tell you that I'm goin' to take up that note," he said. "What note is that?"

"Why, the one Bob give you. I reckon I'm able to stand the—the risk as well as you are."

"Well," and Hilmyer smiled again at his wife, "I think you've got a lot o' gall to come tell me a thing like that. When did I ever ask you to give up a good loan to me?"

"I think so myself," joined in Mrs. Hilmyer, who had caught her husband's drift. "Why, Mr. Hilmyer was jest sayin' 'fother day that it was mighty nigh impossible to put money out whar it ud be safe an' draw any sort o' interest, an' Bob's got a good payin' cash business."

Hanks shrugged his shoulders. His small smile had vanished; he looked shrewd.

"I reckon I'll have to give Bob the money, then, an' tell 'im to pay it off. I don't want 'im to be ov'in' anybody."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin bet I ain't a-goin' to transfer any note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

"An' that's nothin' more'n fair," said Mrs. Hilmyer as Hanks rose and started to leave.

The next morning at the warehouse Hanks seemed somewhat preoccupied. Presently in a hall in business and conversation he turned to Hilmyer. "I-I mentioned that note to Bob this mornin' at breakfast, an' what you reckon he said? Huh?"

"How do I know?" replied the merchant.

Hanks opened the door of the stove, a cigar in his hand, and began to look for a coal of fire. "It sorter flustered 'im, but he finally said that he believed he'd rather not take my offer; that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. What do you think o' that?"

Hilmyer shook his head, a pleased expression on his face. He made no reply, but Kenner spoke up. "The boy don't intend to ax you no odds, Lib," he said, "an' I glory in his spunk."

"Well, I've come over to tell you that I'm goin' to take up that note," he said. "What note is that?"

"Why, the one Bob give you. I reckon I'm able to stand the—the risk as well as you are."

"Well," and Hilmyer smiled again at his wife, "I think you've got a lot o' gall to come tell me a thing like that. When did I ever ask you to give up a good loan to me?"

"I think so myself," joined in Mrs. Hilmyer, who had caught her husband's drift. "Why, Mr. Hilmyer was jest sayin' 'fother day that it was mighty nigh impossible to put money out whar it ud be safe an' draw any sort o' interest, an' Bob's got a good payin' cash business."

Hanks shrugged his shoulders. His small smile had vanished; he looked shrewd.

"I reckon I'll have to give Bob the money, then, an' tell 'im to pay it off. I don't want 'im to be ov'in' anybody."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin bet I ain't a-goin' to transfer any note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

"An' that's nothin' more'n fair," said Mrs. Hilmyer as Hanks rose and started to leave.

The next morning at the warehouse Hanks seemed somewhat preoccupied. Presently in a hall in business and conversation he turned to Hilmyer. "I-I mentioned that note to Bob this mornin' at breakfast, an' what you reckon he said? Huh?"

"How do I know?" replied the merchant.

Hanks opened the door of the stove, a cigar in his hand, and began to look for a coal of fire. "It sorter flustered 'im, but he finally said that he believed he'd rather not take my offer; that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. What do you think o' that?"

Hilmyer shook his head, a pleased expression on his face. He made no reply, but Kenner spoke up. "The boy don't intend to ax you no odds, Lib," he said, "an' I glory in his spunk."

"Well, I've come over to tell you that I'm goin' to take up that note," he said. "What note is that?"

"Why, the one Bob give you. I reckon I'm able to stand the—the risk as well as you are."

"Well," and Hilmyer smiled again at his wife, "I think you've got a lot o' gall to come tell me a thing like that. When did I ever ask you to give up a good loan to me?"

"I think so myself," joined in Mrs. Hilmyer, who had caught her husband's drift. "Why, Mr. Hilmyer was jest sayin' 'fother day that it was mighty nigh impossible to put money out whar it ud be safe an' draw any sort o' interest, an' Bob's got a good payin' cash business."

Hanks shrugged his shoulders. His small smile had vanished; he looked shrewd.

"I reckon I'll have to give Bob the money, then, an' tell 'im to pay it off. I don't want 'im to be ov'in' anybody."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin bet I ain't a-goin' to transfer any note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

"An' that's nothin' more'n fair," said Mrs. Hilmyer as Hanks rose and started to leave.

The next morning at the warehouse Hanks seemed somewhat preoccupied. Presently in a hall in business and conversation he turned to Hilmyer. "I-I mentioned that note to Bob this mornin' at breakfast, an' what you reckon he said? Huh?"

"How do I know?" replied the merchant.

Hanks opened the door of the stove, a cigar in his hand, and began to look for a coal of fire. "It sorter flustered 'im, but he finally said that he believed he'd rather not take my offer; that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. What do you think o' that?"

Hilmyer shook his head, a pleased expression on his face. He made no reply, but Kenner spoke up. "The boy don't intend to ax you no odds, Lib," he said, "an' I glory in his spunk."

"Well, I've come over to tell you that I'm goin' to take up that note," he said. "What note is that?"

"Why, the one Bob give you. I reckon I'm able to stand the—the risk as well as you are."

"Well," and Hilmyer smiled again at his wife, "I think you've got a lot o' gall to come tell me a thing like that. When did I ever ask you to give up a good loan to me?"

"I think so myself," joined in Mrs. Hilmyer, who had caught her husband's drift. "Why, Mr. Hilmyer was jest sayin' 'fother day that it was mighty nigh impossible to put money out whar it ud be safe an' draw any sort o' interest, an' Bob's got a good payin' cash business."

Hanks shrugged his shoulders. His small smile had vanished; he looked shrewd.

"I reckon I'll have to give Bob the money, then, an' tell 'im to pay it off. I don't want 'im to be ov'in' anybody."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin bet I ain't a-goin' to transfer any note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

"An' that's nothin' more'n fair," said Mrs. Hilmyer as Hanks rose and started to leave.

The next morning at the warehouse Hanks seemed somewhat preoccupied. Presently in a hall in business and conversation he turned to Hilmyer. "I-I mentioned that note to Bob this mornin' at breakfast, an' what you reckon he said? Huh?"

"How do I know?" replied the merchant.

Hanks opened the door of the stove, a cigar in his hand, and began to look for a coal of fire. "It sorter flustered 'im, but he finally said that he believed he'd rather not take my offer; that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. What do you think o' that?"

Hilmyer shook his head, a pleased expression on his face. He made no reply, but Kenner spoke up. "The boy don't intend to ax you no odds, Lib," he said, "an' I glory in his spunk."

"Well, I've come over to tell you that I'm goin' to take up that note," he said. "What note is that?"

"Why, the one Bob give you. I reckon I'm able to stand the—the risk as well as you are."

"Well," and Hilmyer smiled again at his wife, "I think you've got a lot o' gall to come tell me a thing like that. When did I ever ask you to give up a good loan to me?"

"I think so myself," joined in Mrs. Hilmyer, who had caught her husband's drift. "Why, Mr. Hilmyer was jest sayin' 'fother day that it was mighty nigh impossible to put money out whar it ud be safe an' draw any sort o' interest, an' Bob's got a good payin' cash business."

Hanks shrugged his shoulders. His small smile had vanished; he looked shrewd.

"I reckon I'll have to give Bob the money, then, an' tell 'im to pay it off. I don't want 'im to be ov'in' anybody."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin bet I ain't a-goin' to transfer any note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

"An' that's nothin' more'n fair," said Mrs. Hilmyer as Hanks rose and started to leave.

The next morning at the warehouse Hanks seemed somewhat preoccupied. Presently in a hall in business and conversation he turned to Hilmyer. "I-I mentioned that note to Bob this mornin' at breakfast, an' what you reckon he said? Huh?"

"How do I know?" replied the merchant.

Hanks opened the door of the stove, a cigar in his hand, and began to look for a coal of fire. "It sorter flustered 'im, but he finally said that he believed he'd rather not take my offer; that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. What do you think o' that?"

Hilmyer shook his head, a pleased expression on his face. He made no reply, but Kenner spoke up. "The boy don't intend to ax you no odds, Lib," he said, "an' I glory in his spunk."

"Well, I've come over to tell you that I'm goin' to take up that note," he said. "What note is that?"

"Why, the one Bob give you. I reckon I'm able to stand the—the risk as well as you are."

"Well," and Hilmyer smiled again at his wife, "I think you've got a lot o' gall to come tell me a thing like that. When did I ever ask you to give up a good loan to me?"

"I think so myself," joined in Mrs. Hilmyer, who had caught her husband's drift. "Why, Mr. Hilmyer was jest sayin' 'fother day that it was mighty nigh impossible to put money out whar it ud be safe an' draw any sort o' interest, an' Bob's got a good payin' cash business."

Hanks shrugged his shoulders. His small smile had vanished; he looked shrewd.

"I reckon I'll have to give Bob the money, then, an' tell 'im to pay it off. I don't want 'im to be ov'in' anybody."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin bet I ain't a-goin' to transfer any note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

"An' that's nothin' more'n fair," said Mrs. Hilmyer as Hanks rose and started to leave.

The next morning at the warehouse Hanks seemed somewhat preoccupied. Presently in a hall in business and conversation he turned to Hilmyer. "I-I mentioned that note to Bob this mornin' at breakfast, an' what you reckon he said? Huh?"

"How do I know?" replied the merchant.

Hanks opened the door of the stove, a cigar in his hand, and began to look for a coal of fire. "It sorter flustered 'im, but he finally said that he believed he'd rather not take my offer; that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. What do you think o' that?"

Hilmyer shook his head, a pleased expression on his face. He made no reply, but Kenner spoke up. "The boy don't intend to ax you no odds, Lib," he said, "an' I glory in his spunk."

"Well, I've come over to tell you that I'm goin' to take up that note," he said. "What note is that?"

"Why, the one Bob give you. I reckon I'm able to stand the—the risk as well as you are."

"Well," and Hilmyer smiled again at his wife, "I think you've got a lot o' gall to come tell me a thing like that. When did I ever ask you to give up a good loan to me?"

"I think so myself," joined in Mrs. Hilmyer, who had caught her husband's drift. "Why, Mr. Hilmyer was jest sayin' 'fother day that it was mighty nigh impossible to put money out whar it ud be safe an' draw any sort o' interest, an' Bob's got a good payin' cash business."

Hanks shrugged his shoulders. His small smile had vanished; he looked shrewd.

"I reckon I'll have to give Bob the money, then, an' tell 'im to pay it off. I don't want 'im to be ov'in' anybody."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin bet I ain't a-goin' to transfer any note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

"An' that's nothin' more'n fair," said Mrs. Hilmyer as Hanks rose and started to leave.

The next morning at the warehouse Hanks seemed somewhat preoccupied. Presently in a hall in business and conversation he turned to Hilmyer. "I-I mentioned that note to Bob this mornin' at breakfast, an' what you reckon he said? Huh?"

"How do I know?" replied the merchant.

Hanks opened the door of the stove, a cigar in his hand, and began to look for a coal of fire. "It sorter flustered 'im, but he finally said that he believed he'd rather not take my offer; that he wanted to sorter work out his own salvation. What do you think o' that?"

Hilmyer shook his head, a pleased expression on his face. He made no reply, but Kenner spoke up. "The boy don't intend to ax you no odds, Lib," he said, "an' I glory in his spunk."

"Well, I've come over to tell you that I'm goin' to take up that note," he said. "What note is that?"

"Why, the one Bob give you. I reckon I'm able to stand the—the risk as well as you are."

"Well," and Hilmyer smiled again at his wife, "I think you've got a lot o' gall to come tell me a thing like that. When did I ever ask you to give up a good loan to me?"

"I think so myself," joined in Mrs. Hilmyer, who had caught her husband's drift. "Why, Mr. Hilmyer was jest sayin' 'fother day that it was mighty nigh impossible to put money out whar it ud be safe an' draw any sort o' interest, an' Bob's got a good payin' cash business."

Hanks shrugged his shoulders. His small smile had vanished; he looked shrewd.

"I reckon I'll have to give Bob the money, then, an' tell 'im to pay it off. I don't want 'im to be ov'in' anybody."

"Oh, that's entirely a different matter," smiled the merchant. "But you kin bet I ain't a-goin' to transfer any note without knowin' how it would suit my customer."

"An' that's nothin' more'n fair," said Mrs. Hilmyer as Hanks rose and started to leave.

The next morning at the warehouse Hanks seemed somewhat preoccupied. Presently in a hall in business and conversation he turned to Hilmyer. "I-I mentioned that note to Bob this mornin' at breakfast, an' what you reckon he said? Huh?"

"How do I know?" replied the merchant.

Hanks opened the door of the stove, a cigar in his Olympic Games.

Chief Sullivan Is Preparing For Record Breaking Contests In St. Louis.

The Olympic games at St. Louis, to be held Aug. 29 to Sept. 3, should prove the greatest of all athletic carnivals. Teams from Australia, Ireland, England, Germany, France and America will compete.

James E. Sullivan, chief of the department of physical culture at St. Louis and secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union, has the Olympic games in charge, and nothing more need be said in prophesying success.

BARON PIERRE DE COUBERTIN, OF THE OLYMPIC GAMES COMMITTEE.

Athletic union, has the Olympic games in charge, and nothing more need be said in prophesying success.

The international Olympic committee, composed of men of title and of others of high standing, will have a large representation—including Baron Pierre de Coubertin of Paris, who is its president—at the games, and Chief Sullivan, who is also secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union, is making elaborate preparations to entertain them.

The Irish team will be made up of Dennis Hogan, the famous weight thrower and shot putter; the Leahy brothers, crack jumpers, and Peter O'Connor, runner and jumper, who has broken all kinds of track and field records.

One of the strong American teams will be that representing the Milwaukee Athletic Club. Its members include Hahn, the fast sprinter who has been hailed as a second Arthur Tuffey; Schulte, who, like Hahn, was developed at the University of Michigan; Beckman, Breitkreutz, McEachern, Miller and Hall. Schulte is a remarkably speedy hurdler.

Hahn is in tiptop shape and is expected to win the handsome trophy offered by Director F. J. V. Siff for the winner of the 100 meter run.

Ex-Governor Francis has also offered a valuable prize to the winner of the Marathon race, a revival of the famous old Greek contest of the same name. Cups for various events have also been offered by A. G. Spaulding, H. H. Baxter and Charles J. Dienes of New York.

The Olympian games will be conducted under the rules of the A. A. U. The programme is as follows:

Monday, Aug. 29.—Sixty meter run, throwing the sixteen pound hammer, 400 meter run, 2,500 meter steeple-chase, standing broad jump, running high jump.

Tuesday, Aug. 30.—Marathon race, forty kilometers.

Wednesday, Aug. 31.—Two hundred meter run, putting the sixteen pound shot, lifting bar bell, standing high jump, international tug of war (rings), tennis of five men each, weight unlimited; 400 meter hurdle.

Thursday, Sept. 1.—Eight hundred meter run, throwing fifty-six pound

PETER O'CONNOR, NOTED IRISH CHAMPION. weight for distance, 200 meter hurdle race, running broad jump, running hop, step and jump, tug of war (rings), dumbbell competition, first section.

Saturday, Sept. 2.—One hundred meter run, throwing the discus, dumbbell, second section; 1,500 meter run, 110 meter hurdle, pole vault for height, three standing jumps, international team race, each country to start five men, distance four miles, the team scoring the least number of points to win, scoring to be one point for first, two points for second, etc.

McKay's Purchase. Robert H. McKay of Norristown, Pa., has purchased in New York the famous mare Alta Ford, by Trevillian, 2:23 1/4.

Drops Dead When Adjudged Insane. Benton, Ill., Aug. 1.—Isaac Day, aged 49, dropped dead in the courtroom. He was brought from Whit- ington and adjudged insane before the county court.

DIPHTHERIA BUG THE LATEST

Minnesota Doctors Struggling With a New Cause of Disease.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 1.—The medical profession of St. Paul and Minneapolis is wrestling with a brand-new bug. Doctors have been within the last six weeks called on to combat an epidemic that displayed in its original symptoms all the characteristics of diphtheria. On examination it has been shown that the bacillus of diphtheria did not exist in the throats of the patients, and that instead there was a virulent-looking bug, described by bacteriologists as a spirillum. It is seldom if ever fatal, but its similitude in its early stages to diphtheria often leads to an unnecessary quarantine and application of antitoxin.

CORNER MURDERERS IN SWAMP

Hundreds Pursue Men Who Held Up Pennsylvania Postmaster.

Portage, Pa., Aug. 1.—Pursued by 500 determined men, the three men who murdered Charles Hays, driver, and perhaps fatally wounded Patrick P. Campbell, paymaster for the Portland Coal company, are hiding in Cedar swamp, about seven miles from Portage. One of the fugitives is wounded, having been shot while entering the swamp. In parties of about twenty pursuers are scattered out over the entire boundary of the Laurel thicket and swamp, which is twelve miles long and seven miles wide, while hundreds of others are forcing their way through the undergrowth in search of the trail of the fugitives.

FOUR BEARS HOLD UP A TRAIN

Retreat Only When Excursionists Attack Them With Firebrands.

Lock Haven, Pa., Aug. 1.—Four bears stopped an excursion on the Caminal & Black Forest railway. When the train neared Wilcox Summit a large bear was seen standing on the trestle, while three more bears were under the trestle, digging around some of the supports, making it unsafe for the train to cross. All efforts of the train crew and 250 passengers on the train to dislodge the "critters" with stones and clubs were unavailing until several long poles were secured. On the ends of the poles oil-soaked waste was fastened and then fired. A charge was made on the animals and they retreated into the forest.

MICHIGAN STATE BANK CLOSES

Institution at White Pigeon Promises Payment in Full.

White Pigeon, Mich., Aug. 1.—The state bank at this place, capitalized at $251,000, and one of the oldest financial institutions in the western part of the state, did not open for business Saturday. A statement was issued by the officers of the bank promising the depositors payment in full. No reason was assigned for the closing of the bank. Several hundred depositors crowded in front of the bank building, and there was considerable excitement for a time. Among its thousands of depositors are many Indiana farmers and capitalists.

STUB OF CIGAR CAUSES A FIRE

Opera House and Business Houses Destroyed in Wisconsin Town.

Prairie-du-Chien, Wis., Aug. 1.—The City opera house, B. N. Peterson hardware store and Peterson, Erie & Oetken's bottling works, at Soldiers' Grove, were destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at $22,000, with insurance of only $11,000. The origin of the fire is supposed to have been a lighted cigar stub thrown in a pile of rubbish back of the stage in the hall of the theater.

TROLLEY CARS IN COLLISION

Ohio Wreck Results in the Injury of Twenty-Three People.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 1.—Twenty-three persons were hurt as the result of a rear-end collision between two large trolley cars on the shore line of the Cleveland, Eastern and Painesville railroad near Solon, O. Except Mrs. John Heinrich of 321 Harbor street, who is said to be badly hurt, the passengers sustained only minor bruises.

Murder Near World's Fair. St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 1.—During a fight in a resort just outside of the main entrance of the world's fair grounds Stanley Gellno of Wellington, Kas., was shot and instantly killed.

PLAN BIG TELEPHONE COMBINE

Will Take In Independent Companies of Central Illinois.

Bloomington, Ill., Aug. 1.—Preliminary plans to organize the Central Illinois Independent Telephone association, which will represent a capitalization of over $10,000,000 and include every central Illinois independent telephone company, have been made in this city. Albert Schuler of Streator was chairman of the meeting and H. C. Critchfield of Moline secretary. A committee was appointed to outline permanent organization plans.

ELECTS NEW YORK EDUCATOR

University of Iowa Calls Dr. Prentiss to Chair of Anatomy.

Iowa City, Aug. 1.—Dr. Henry Prentiss of New York city has been appointed professor of anatomy in the University of Iowa by the regents. He is now professor of practical anatomy in the Bellevue medical college of New York university. He will begin work here in September.

Girl Drowns in River.

Galena, Ill., Aug. 1.—Anna Harroun, 12-year-old daughter of Alderman Harroun of East Dubuque, was drowned in the Mississippi river near her home. The little girl was with a Sunday school picnic party and accidentally fell from a barge.

SEEKS TO HONOR OLD VIKING

Movement Is on Foot to Celebrate the Founding of Normandy.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 1.—Prof. Rasmus B. Anderson, the well-known Norse scholar and author, has started a movement to bring about a general celebration in England, Scandinavia and the United States July 1, 1912, in commemoration of the founding of Normandy by the Norse chieftain, Rollo, or Rolf, in 911. He thinks monuments should be erected in some of the principal cities of England, Scandinavia and the United States. Prof. Anderson is a former United States minister to Denmark.

PENILESS YOUTH WINS HONOR

Student Working Through School Gets Rhodes Scholarship.

Richmond, Ind., Aug. 1.—George Hamilton, a student of Earlham College, this city, has been awarded the Cecil Rhodes scholarship for Indiana. He has been notified that he may enter Oxford College, England, Oct. 1. Hamilton's pluck won him Indiana's honors in the Rhodes scholarship contest. He is a self-made student, being absolutely without financial resources. He worked for his three years' tuition in Earlham College and by doing extra class work prepared himself for the Rhodes examination, distancing all competitors.

BOAT BRAVES STORM ON RIVER

Steamer on the Mississippi Weathers a Perilous Voyage.

Davenport, Iowa, Aug. 1.—The excursion steamer J. S. arrived at Davenport Sunday morning after having passed the entire night in a terrific storm that swept the boat against the Illinois bank at Audubon. Capt. Streckfus says trees were torn out by their roots during the storm. The nonarrival of the boat, which was seven hours overdue, caused a crowd of fifty relatives of those on board to keep vigil in the rain all night, while many wild rumors caused intense excitement.

SEVER ROPE AND FOIL MOB

Three Men Defy 250 and Avert Lynching of Child's Assailant.

Johnstown, Pa., Aug. 1.—Enraged at the crime of Andrew Dulok, a foreigner, who it is alleged, assaulted the five-year-old daughter of A. Packern at Boswell, Somerset County, Sunday afternoon, a mob of 250 men attempted to lynch him and would have succeeded had it not been for the efforts of two or three men, who cut the rope which had been placed around his neck. The rescuers dragged the prisoner away to the jail.

OVEREXERTION CAUSE OF DEATH

Normal School Student "Chins" Twenty-four Times in Succession.

Terre Haute, Ind., Aug. 1.—Coroner Tabor finds that Robert Fair, a junior at the Indiana Normal School, who was found dead, suffered from heart exhaustion, caused by "chinning" 24 times in succession while exercising in the gymnasium. Fair was in robust health, and the sustained effort in raising himself with his arms to rest his chin on a ring of a ladder brought on cardiac trouble. He had recently been elected principal of the Clay City schools.

Generate Electricity by Water.

Even in Spain waterfalls are now being used as a source of electric power. In one case twenty-three small villages are supplied from the power station. In Italy the employment of innumerable waterfalls has enormously increased the output of manufactured silk. "Here," says an English writer, "is a form of power that will last longer than Great Britain's coal fields."

Marian Joan of Arc.

The Italian sculptor Ettore Ferraria has completed a relief portrait of "the Italian Jeanne d'Arc," Signora Stamura, for Ancona, which she helped to defend during the siege by Barbarossa. She inspired courage in the citizens by her exhortations, and during a sally applied the torches with her own hands to the German siege towers, according to tradition. She was a widow.

Condemns Flannels.

Dr. Leonard Williams, in an article in the London Practitioner, declares that flannel underclothing is a fraud. "Dry flannel," he says, "is practically unabsorbent, whereas linen, cotton and silk are, in different degrees, very absorbent." He concludes that "woolen underclothing is, of all others, the best calculated to induce a relaxed and unresponsive condition of the skin."

Killing Rare Birds.

Commenting on the craze for killing rare birds wherever they may be found, a writer in London Truth says: "I should have thought that the fact that a bird is rare would be a reason for not killing it. I suppose the idea is that, however rare a bird is, something may still be done to make him rarer."

Oyster Bay Settled in 1653.

In 1642 a party of English adventurers direct from New England attempted to settle at Oyster Bay, and actually purchased the land from the Indians, but the Dutch drove them out. Eventually a compromise was made and the Dutch and English divided Long Island between them. The first permanent settlement on the site of the present village of Oyster Bay was then made in 1653.

Oldest Tree.

The oldest tree in the world is on the island of Kos, lying off the coast of Asia Minor. The trunk is thirty feet in circumference. A wall of masonry surrounds it and supports the two main branches. It is believed to be more than 2,000 years old.

Fogs Increase Mortality.

The mortality curves in London rise in proportion to the density of the fogs and consequent exclusion of sunlight, which is the deadly foe of disease germs.

ONLY ONE MONTH MORE of The Gazette's Popular

..Voting Contest..

It is a gift that requires work, and hard work too. But the prize is worth your hardest efforts. Now don't delay but for the next month rush in all the votes you can and you will earn a vacation long to be remembered.

A Week's Visit to the World's Fair With All Expenses and Wages Paid--All to Be Given by the Gazette.

List of Popular Men Who Have Received Votes For the Gazette's Free Week Trip to the St. LouisWorld'sFair.

H. L. Roberts,
F. J. Clifcorn,
Carl Palmer,
Simpson Lawson,
George Nicholson,
Frank Drew,
John Kobel,
George Ashley,
S. M. Fisher,

Otto Burnett,
Eugene Delisle,
W. A. Johnson,
Bert Sherwood,
J. C. Morris,
R. Feddersen,
Will Kimball,
Chas. Gibson,

John Kelly,
Berney Dunwiddie,
W. W. Taylor,
Wm. Brennan,
Henry Young,
Ray Lloyd,
C. P. Newton,
Jas. Angell.

CONDITIONS OF THE CONTEST

Cut out the Coupon each day, enter the name of your favorite and forward to the Gazette office.

The popularity of the candidate is to be determined by the number of votes cast for him.

Regular Schedule--Both old and new subscribers who pay in advance and for all coupons will receive the same number of votes—that is for every cent paid in advance during this contest:

3 votes until midnight July 30th,
2 votes until 10 p. m. August 31st,
1 vote for all coupons clipped from the Gazette and delivered at this office before 10 p. m. August 31st.

Premiums--In addition to the regular schedule, new subscriptions will secure premiums when paid in advance, as follows:

One month paid in advance, 100 votes.
Three months paid in advance, 400 votes.
Six months paid in advance, 1,000 votes.
One year paid in advance, 2,500 votes.

GAZETTE FREE WORLD'S FAIR TRIPS

Janesville, Date....., 1904

Please send me the Daily Gazette for.....months and herewith find $..... and.....cents to pay for same.

Place.....votes to the credit of Mr.....as the most popular working man in Janesville.

Signed.....
Address.....

GAZETTE

World's Fair Coupon.

Cast One Vote

For.....

Free Week at World's Fair.

Signed.....
Voter's Address.....

Price of Subscription to the Daily Gazette.

By Carrier--One Month; 50c in advance; Three Month, $1.25 in advance; Six months, $2.50 in advance; One Year, $5.00 in advance.
By Mail in Rock County--Four Months, $1.00 in advance; Six Months, $1.50 in advance; One Year, $3.00 in advance.

Read
Richard Le Gallienne's
New Story in the August Number of the Metropolitan Magazine

R. H. Russell, Publisher
New York City

A 35-cent Magazine for 15 cents

Agents wanted everywhere to obtain subscriptions.
Watch our other advertisements appearing in this paper

Many Baseball Topics

Attempts to Bring on Another Baseball War. Relations of Major Leagues -- Beaumont's Unique Distinction. Al Bender, Mack's Indian Pitcher.

Not content with a real war in the east, which has no end in sight, a few newspapers are trying to provoke another baseball war between the American and National leagues. In fact, if one believed all one read, such a war is already on, but has not been discovered as yet by the rival magnates. So far the only evidences produced are the natural elements of friction which must of necessity exist between organizations which touch each other at as many points as do the American and and serious attention but for the well known fact that newspapers, more than any other one element, brought on the war of 1900 between the American and National leagues. But the men who weathered that war are not going to plunge into another, which can be only one of extermination, without greater cause than is in sight. It would be ridiculous if the present national agreement, which was drafted under pressure and to fit conditions which existed two years ago, should turn out a perfect document satisfactory to everybody for all time. If it is not satisfactory to the majority of club owners in every particular today it can easily be changed or amended by that majority. It is true that a few club owners would like to fight again, because they see no other way to make money out of baseball, but the majority of the clubs in both leagues are prosperous, and that majority will rule baseball for awhile yet. But there is always a danger, which Garry Hermann, chairman of the national commission, warned his associates against in these words: "If you don't agree, don't try to fight it out at long range or through the newspapers. Get together in a room for your fight, and you will be surprised to find how near you are to agreeing after all."

Clarence Beaumont, the genial center fielder of the Pittsburg champions, is known as "the handsomest man in the National league." His picture was the first that President William

CLARENCE BEAUMONT, CENTER FIELDER OF THE PITTSBURG NATIONALS.

National leagues. The proofs exist in the fact that both leagues are prepared for war at any time. So it might be said of England, Germany and the United States. These nations are always more or less prepared for war and trying to be more so all the time. That is not proof positive they are going to fight each other this week or next year. It is merely a matter of political economy and rather a preventive of war than otherwise. As a matter of fact, there has been less friction between the major leagues this year than last, and most of that has been caused by indiscreet talk and indiscriminate quoting of such talk by newspapers.

AL BENDER OF THE PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS.

The present rumors would not com-

Identification of Criminals. It is proposed by a dentist that as a further means of identification casts should be taken of prisoners' mouths.

Moor the First Inventor. The first piece of genuine mechanism in the modern world saw, a clock, was the invention of a Moor.

An Animal Story For Little Folks How Fido Was Avenged

Fido was a good dog, but Fido had one enemy. He made no enemies himself, but this one happened. It was Terence Muldoon, who lived on the next street and who took a special delight in tying tin cans with strings to the stubby tail of Fido.

One day Terence had cornered Fido and in spite of his growls of protest had tied an unusually large can to his poor tail. Down the street Fido tore, the can hanging and bumping along over the stones. It was a hot day, and Fido's little tongue hung out of his mouth helplessly. Every one stood and laughed. But Fido was going mad. He frothed at the mouth; his eyes stuck out. People cried "Mad dog!" and at last, after many attempts, a policeman shot him. They buried him in Dog cemetery. But that night Ter-

HE HAD TIED TO HIM A HUGE CAN.

ence Muldoon could not sleep. He dreamed that he stood at the end of a long street paved with cobblestones, wondering how far it was to the other end, when he heard a whirring sound, as of wings, behind him, and, looking around, he saw a sight that made his hair stand on end. There in the air above him, with a ribbon round his neck and a halo above his head, like a saint, was Fido, supported on two gorgeous wings of snowy white. His eyes were big and staring, and he wore a most fearful grin. Terence did not stop to look again, but at once took to his heels and ran. Suddenly he heard something clattering on the stones behind, and, turning, he saw that he had tied to him a huge can. He saw also that the dog spirit was flying after him. He thought he heard it yell "Mad boy!" Just then the winged Fido made a great swoop down at him. He yelled "Help! Help!" and woke up. But the other dogs in Terence's street are now sleeping safely and without fear. —St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

An Animal Story For Little Folks The Grasshopper's Sign

Who would think that anybody had a better right to play around in the bright green fields than the grasshopper? And yet when he made his appearance in the meadow the other day he was confronted with a sign which read:

KEEP OFF THE GRASS.

"Now, who could have put up that sign?" meditated the grasshopper, as he sat on a blade of grass and thought. "I am sure it must have been Mr. Butterfly," he continued, "because he doesn't like me at all. But I can't keep off the grass. This is my home, and I am not able to climb trees or live in the water.

HE SAT ON A BLADE OF GRASS AND THOUGHT.

"But there's that sign," he added; "what am I to do about that? I suppose the best thing is to use it in some way to keep the butterflies from worrying me any more."

So off he went to a paint shop and got a bucket of paint and a brush. Then he returned to the field where the sign stood, and at the bottom of it he painted these words, "Hopper's Flowers."

And now the sign was altogether different, for it read:

KEEP OFF THE GRASSHOPPER'S FLOWERS.

When the butterflies came along that way and read the new sign and saw Mr. Grasshopper marching about the field with a big club in his hands they decided that it would not be wise for them to stay around there any longer, and they had to go to another meadow to find flowers to feed upon. —Pittsburg Dispatch.

Abandon Socialistic Colony. Nineteen Jews, who organized a colony on socialistic teetotal lines in Iowa, had to abandon the enterprise after three months.

CANADA BARS FOREIGN LABOR

ONE MAN DEMANDS HIS RIGHTS American Insists That He Is Entitled to Work For Railroad Company and Appeals to the Courts to Sustain His Contentions.

Washington, Aug. 1.—There is going to be a row between the United States and Canada over the enforcement of alien contract labor laws. Strikes in the United States, especially along the Canadian border, accentuate the points in controversy, the labor unions of the two countries using the laws to prevent the importation of strike breakers, who are informed upon on reaching the boundary and turned back. Canadian government policies are likely to be involved in the dispute and the propriety of its action in offering inducements to American farmers to migrate from the northwestern border states into Canada will be questioned.

Makes Appeal to Hay. The controversy probably will reach a critical point upon the appeal for protection made by an American engineer named Lincoln. Some time ago an organization of Canadian engineers complained that the Grand Trunk Railway management, which has in charge the Grand Trunk Pacific, the new Canadian transcontinental railway, was bringing in Americans to fill positions on the engineering staff that might as easily be filled by Canadians. As a general election is near, the Ottawa government started to bundle these Americans out of the country. A Toronto judge was appealed to by the Canadian Society, and on his report warrants are being issued for the deportation of a number of Americans engaged on the work. Some of them have gone of their own accord.

American Fights For Rights. One, a Mr. Bacon, an assistant engineer in charge of work between Lake Superior and Winnipeg, hearing that a warrant was out for him, has, however, shown fight. Instead of quietly crossing the line he has hired a lawyer at Port Arthur and telegraphed to the State Department here asking protection. This he has done of his own accord, without any suggestion from Grand Trunk headquarters at Montreal or from his superiors in the field.

Labor leaders in the United States frequently invoke the American law against non-union men coming from Canada to take the places of strikers along the border, but the United States authorities do not attempt any general enforcement of the United States law against Canadians.

Given Latitude in United States. Thousands of French Canadians leave the Province of Quebec in the fall to work in New England, going home in the spring in time to put in their crops. These birds of passage are not interfered with in the winter. Hundreds of persons who reside at Canadian frontier points cross the line into the United States every morning to work and return to their Canadian homes at night. These, too, come and go as they please. There is also an enormous migration from the maritime provinces of Canada to Boston and other New England cities, young "blue-noses" of both sexes finding employment there for a few months and returning home for the fishing season or the planting of crops. Here, again, there is no interference on the part of the United States officers.

Position is Peculiar. On the other hand, the position occupied by the Dominion government is in more senses than one peculiar. In the first place, it has of late employed a number of officials on the pay roll of the interior department at Ottawa to travel about the Western and Northwestern states for the purpose of inducing American farmers to move to Manitoba and the Northwest territories of Canada. Some of these government agents have opened offices at the expense of the crown in St. Paul, Chicago, La Crosse, Spokane and Milwaukee, from which they distribute literature prepared and printed by the Canadian government, while special rates for American settlers from the great West to Manitoba are arranged for, also at the expense of the Dominion government.

Canada is Inconsistent. The question is now asked whether the United States is not likely to object to the proselyting operations, not of individual Canadians, but of the accredited agents of the Dominion government.

While the Dominion government is thus itself contracting with American labor to enter Canada, it is interfering with private persons who do so and deporting the Americans whom those private persons attract. Another question will be raised in the case—namely, whether Canada, as a colony of Great Britain, has the right to exclude from her borders American citizens or the citizens of any other nation with which Britain is living in comity and good will.

Earthquake Shakes Far West. Woodland, Cal., Aug. 1.—Several distinct earthquake shocks were felt here Saturday. They were heavy enough to awaken people. No damage was done.

Mice Dislike Peppermint. Mice have a great antipathy to the smell of peppermint, and a little oil of peppermint placed around their haunts and holes will successfully keep them away.

Coal Dear in South Africa. Coal is dearer in South Africa than in any other part of the world. It is cheapest in China.

Old Map of Jerusalem. A map of Jerusalem in mosaic over 1,500 years old has been found in Palestine.

MALARIA

IMPURE AIR Malaria is not confined exclusively to the swamps and marshy regions of the country, but wherever there is bad air this insidious foe to health is found. Poisonous vapors and gases from sewers, and the musty air of damp cellars are laden with the germs of this miserable disease, which are breathed into the lungs and taken up by the blood and transmitted to every part of the body. Then you begin to feel out of sorts without ever suspecting the cause. No energy or appetite, dull headaches, sleepy and tired and completely fagged-out from the slightest exertion, are some of the deplorable effects of this enfeebling malady. As the disease progresses and the blood becomes more deeply poisoned, boils and abscesses and dark or yellow spots appear upon the skin. When the poison is left to ferment and the microbes and germs to multiply in the blood, Liver and Kidney troubles and other serious complications often arise. As Malaria begins and develops in the blood, the treatment to be effective must begin there too. S. S. S. destroys the germs and poisons and purifies the polluted blood. S. S. S. is a guaranteed purely vegetable remedy. Write us if you want medical advice or any special information. This will cost you nothing.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

$30.05 to Colorado and Back

Every day this summer. Return limit October 31. Two through trains Chicago to Denver every day via the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway

In connection with the Union Pacific Railroad. Hundreds of places among the Rocky Mountains that are ideal summer resorts. Ask the nearest agent of this Company for details of the trip, or write today to

F. A. MILLER, General Passenger Agent, CHICAGO.

Want Ads. Bring Results

GREAT SALE OF Maynard Shoe Co.'s Entire $15,000 Stock Is Now in Full Blast

Every Dollar's Worth Must Be Closed Out

Our Prices Are Doing the Work.

Don't Delay. Come at Once.

Golden Eagle Clothing House.

J.M. BOSTWICK & SONS. THE BIG STORE 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, S. MAIN ST. JANESVILLE, WIS. WE KEEP THE QUALITY UP

Sale Discontinued.

The goods that were on sale in the Old Fleury Store have been taken into our store and will be closed out at once. The assortments are broken, and some sizes of garments missing, but there remain some excellent bargains, which, with the goods in our regular stock marked down—goods that we want to move to make room for fall purchases, comprise an interesting lot of money-saving chances. Get your share of them;

Silks, Shirt Waists, Dressing Sacques, Kimonos, Percales, Gingham, Gloves, Mitts, Summer Wash Goods, &c.

35c fine lace trimmed 19c

Vests..... 69c

Honey comb white 69c

Bed Spreads 49c

Silk-dotted Mohairs, 85c grade..... 10c

Neckwear, assorted styles, 25c value... 10c